Czechs Urge Deadline On Troop Issue

PRAGUE (AP) — The Czechoslocak National Assembly today adopted a resolution demanding a firm deadline for the withdrawal of Soviet-led occupation troops and condemning the occupation as illegal.

Informants said the National Assembly also declared it could not ratify the Moscow agreement because it was reached under pressure.

There was no immediate report from a secret meeting of the Communist party Central Committee of its position on the Moscow accord that continues the occupation and has forced the Czechoslovak regime to rein up on its liberalizing program.

But sources indicated that opposition to the terms of the settlement was hardening rapidly despite appeals by Alexander Dubcek, the party leader, and President Ludvik Svoboda Tuesday for Czechoslovak understanding while they work to end the occupation.

Reformist sources said that Dubcek has been asked to deny rumors he yielded to Soviet demands to declare the special 14th party congress illegal. The congress met secretly last week and elected a liberal Central Committee replacing one that still included a strong conservative wing.

Informants said there was growing opinion that Dubcek should be voted out of office if he confirmed the rumor. This could result in two rival central committees with reformists holding membership in both.

Despite youthful protests and widespread resentment, most Czechoslovaks appeared to be heeding their leaders pleas not to provoke the occupation troops.

A thousand youths demonstrated in Prague Tuesday night against their government's agreement to the stationing of Soviet troops in the country and the curtailment of the new freedoms. "We do not want a compromise! We want to know the truth!" they shouted.

Some underground radio stations, broadcasting from secret locations, demanded that the accord be rejected.

"We refuse to recognize the agreement," the broadcasts said. "Let us not be humiliated or knuckle under."

A crowd in Prague's Wenceslas Square tore down pictures of the reformist leaders who since January had led the country away from 20 years of Stalinist-type rule but now have to reimpose restrictions under the pressure of 350,000 Soviet bloc occupation troops.

But along with these outbursts, the reaction of many others was one of angry resignation. An occasional shot was heard in Prague during the night, but on the whole the city was quiet.

Ohio Fight Looms Over Viet Plank

Caucus Breaks Up Over Minority And Majority Reports

CHICAGO (AP) — The Ohio delegation to the Democratic National Convention appeared headed today toward an internal fight over the controversial Vietnam plank in the party's platform.

The 128 - member delegation held an hour-long caucus late Tuesday some two hours before the session adjourned early today.

The caucus was called to take a vote on the Vietnam plank, but the meeting broke up when it appeared the delegates were headed for a fight over the minority and majority reports on the controversial issue.

Delegate John J. Gilligan, who helped write the minority report, has predicted a 50 - 50 chance for its approval.

Gilligan was scheduled to speak in favor of it when the convention reconvenes today. The plank was headed for a floor fight early today but was postponed when delegates demanded adjournment.

The Ohio delegates also postponed a roll call on the issue until both reports are actually presented to the convention.

State Sen. Charles Carney of Youngstown spoke in favor of the majority report at the caucus. He said afterwards he was for both the majority plank and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

He blamed the supporters of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of "trying to disrupt this convention."

"It isn't a peace plank but a surrender plank," Carney growled, referring to the minority report which calls for an unconditional bombing halt over North Vietnam.

The majority report backs the Johnson administration's policies on Vietnam.

Gilligan, candidate for the U.S. Senate, maintained Tuesday that the Vietnam plank will not be a deciding factor in determining the party's presidential nominee. "It may influence some delegates," he said, "but it will not be a determining issue."

Ted Applies 'Damper' To Draft Drive

Personal, Family Reasons Cited Why He Can't Accept Bid

CHICAGO (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey faced a Democratic convention revolt on Vietnam policies today as he seemed within reach of the party's presidential nomination.

As Humphrey moved within 146 votes of the 1,312 needed for nomination, backers of his two major opponents, Sens. Eugene J. McCarthy and George S. McGovern, merged their efforts early today and forced a crucial delay in the showdown battle over the party's Vietnam policy.

The convention suddenly adjourned after meeting seven hours when large numbers of delegates started shouting and handclapping when reading started of the proposed platform plank recommending continuing policies set by President Johnson and Humphrey.

McCarthy startled some of his followers Tuesday when he told editors of the Knight newspaper group that he thought Humphrey had wrapped up the nomination. Later, a McCarthy spokesman denied that the Minnesota senator had conceded and said he intended to continue fighting.

While talk persisted on an effort to draft Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, the 36-year-old Massachusetts senator moved to end it by issuing a statement through his Washington office saying he would be unable to accept the presidential nomination "for personal and family reasons."

And Kennedy called on those pressing the draft movement, on the floors and corridors of the International Amphitheatre and in downtown hotels, "to cease all activity on my behalf so that the convention can choose its nominee from among the capable and dedicated candidates already in contention."

Humphrey forces maintained their march of convention victories in seating contests over Southern delegations, and the vice president picked up a parade of endorsements from favorite son candidates in Texas, Tennessee and South Carolina to push him very close to the 1,312 votes needed for the nomination tonight.

But the convention pace was imperiled when efforts to reach the critical test vote of Humphrey-McCarthy strength on the Vietnam issue were forestalled by the shouting demonstration

Adjournment Forced Over Viet Plank

CHICAGO (AP) —The anticipated floor fight over a Vietnam war policy broke open with even more than expected fury in the early morning hours today and forced the Democratic National Convention into an abrupt adjournment.

After meeting for nearly seven hours, the weary delegates got to the proposed party platform, which recommends settling the Vietnam conflict along lines set by President Johnson and followed by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the leader for the Democratic presidential nomination.

As the issue came up, some delegates launched a tumult that finally ended when Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley's proposal for an adjournment until 1 p.m. EDT today was accepted.

Fueling the fight was a determined effort by some delegates to stop Humphrey from gaining the nomination.

A minority report calling for an unconditional bombing halt of North Vietnam is widely supported by followers of Humphrey's major opponents, Sens. Eugene J. McCarthy and George S. McGovern, as well as backers of noncandidate Sen. Edward M. Kennedy.

Saigon Hit By Rockets

U.S. Force, Foe Battle In Jungle

SAIGON (AP) — American air cavalrymen battled a sizable enemy force in the jungled infiltration corridor northwest of Saigon today while inside the capital Viet Cong rockets fell for the third time in two months, killing three civilians and wounding five.

U.S. headquarters said a stiff fight was under way 34 miles northwest of the South Vietnamese capital and that so far 44 enemy soldiers had been killed. Jets, helicopter gunships and artillery were supporting the troops of the 101st Air Cavalry Division, who were battling in sweltering heat in an area of flooded rice paddies and verdant jungle just above a main highway leading to Saigon.

The battle began slowly Tuesday afternoon, slackened during the night as flareships lit the darkness and grew in pitch again today.

The size of the enemy force was not known, but the number of casualties and the tempo of the fighting indicated it was a sizable unit that may have been working toward Saigon for the third major enemy offensive of the year which the U.S. Command is still expecting. Increasing numbers of Viet Cong and North Vietnameese are known to be maneuvering in the northwest corridor from the Cambodian border to Saigon, 75 miles away.

The rocket attack on Saigon was the third since Gen. Creighton Abrams assumed command of U.S. forces in mid-June and ordered massive efforts to secure the city after a period of daily rocket barrages against the capital.

Near midnight Tuesday infantrymen of the U.S. 199th Light Infantry Brigade spotted the flame trails of five 107mm rockets streaking toward Saigon.

American howitzers opened up on the enemy firing positions but the results were not known. The enemy gunners were firing from a maximum range of about seven miles from the marshes of the Rung Sat special zone, a wasteland.

Doctors Hold 'Optimistic' Tone On Ike

Further Decrease Reported In His Heart Irritability

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army doctors, maintaining their cautiously optimistic tone, reported today that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower had shown "some further decrease" in heart irritability since Tuesday.

They also said he is "enjoying light background music" in his room at Walter Reed Army Hospital where he still is battling against his seventh heart attack.

The text of a 10:30 a.m. EDT medical bulletin:

"Gen. Eisenhower has spent another comfortable night. There has been some further decrease in cardiac irritability since yesterday's bulletins.

"Gen. Eisenhower's spirits remain good and he has been enjoying light background music at intervals through the last 24 hours.

"Mrs. Eisenhower continues to visit the general for short periods frequently."

Tuesday the doctors had voiced "cautious optimism" about the general's chances of surviving his current attack but they stressed at that time that his condition was still critical and that a recent favorable trend they had noted in his condition "is capable of reversing at any time."

The afternoon and evening bulletins Tuesday said there was no change from the day's first which said:

"In so far as is possible in the setting of Gen. Eisenhower's still critical condition, his physicians have expressed a note of cautious optimism."

The doctors said Tuesday's irregular heartbeats were occurring "to a varying degree."

Another Look At Findlay Garage

Mayor Calvin Thatcher of Findlay, whose administration "inherited" a five - level downtown parking garage when it took office last Jan. 1, feels that the structure is not the "white elephant" that opponents picture it and on the other hand it has not proved the panacea for auto space problems that many of its proponents had predicted.

"There was a lot of adverse publicity and criticism at the time the garage was being built and later, after it first opened," the mayor commented Tuesday afternoon. "We're doing our best to 'sell' " the parking garage to the public, because it is not being utilized to its fullest extent now."

"It was controversial at the time it was built, and it's still controversial," the mayor said. "But it is one of the assets of the city government and, as such, we're trying to make the best of it. We have to operate it; we can't get rid of it."

THE MAYOR pointed out the garage was built in 1963 at a cost of approximately $500,000. It was four years later that he took office.

"This is one of the things I inherited when I came into office," he said. "It's too late now for anyone to complain. The city has the garage and I think it is up to us to do the best we can to 'sell' it to the public for downtown parking.

"It's not a case of something being all black or all white. But in recent months, it has enjoyed an increase in patronage and I believe the public is being sold gradually on its use."

The mayor said he did not have comparative figures available yesterday afternoon on the income from the garage property, as opposed to maintenance and other overhead expenses. He pointed out the revenue figures are lumped in with receipts from the city's other off-street parking facilities.

But the mayor said he hopes to have separated the figures by Thursday, when he is due to confer with Don Eckert, city planning coordinator. Eckert is scheduled to stop at Findlay for a study of the pros and cons

LBJ 'Hints' Endorsement Of Humphrey

Statements Widely Interpreted That He'd Prefer HHH

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson, while declaring a hands-off attitude toward the work of the Democratic National Convention, has edged close to an indirect endorsement of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Meeting with newsmen at an informal 60th birthday party here Tuesday night, Johnson said he hoped the views of the Democratic and Republican presidential candidates "will not be too divergent" so the world won't have to wait until the November election to assess the nation's future course.

With Vietnam and foreign policy obviously uppermost in his mind, Johnson's statement was widely interpreted as meaning he would prefer a Humphrey nomination—though he carefully had some kind words, too, for the vice president's principal rivals, Sens. Eugene J. McCarthy and George McGovern.

Republican nominee Richard M. Nixon is on record with Vietnam views much closer to those of Johnson and Humphrey than either McCarthy or McGovern.

The President passed up a chance to fly to Chicago for a birthday salute at the convention. But he said he might go later—after candidates have been nominated.

The presidential nominating is set for Wednesday, the vice presidential selecting for Thursday.

Picketing Will Continue In War On Air Pollution

NEW CUMBERLAND — The New Cumberland Committee on Air Pollution, meeting Tuesday night, decided to picket the Ohio Edison plant at Toronto on a regular basis to remind plant officials that residents of New Cumberland are demanding action be taken to combat present conditions.

Dr. Alexander Fisher, a pediatrician from East Liverpool, was guest speaker. He told the group that approximpately 300 children a week are treated in his office for allergies and respiratory ailments. He said he would prepare a statistical analysis of the patients from New Cumberland and Weirton.

Dr. Fisher also told the group he will write to all medical associations and public officials to assist in the fight against pollution. He felt a letter from him would have more impact than one from the committee.

It was announced that a letter had been received from Prof. Benjamin Linsky of the College of Engineering and Sanitary Engineering (air pollution) at West Virginia University.

Prof. Linsky said he will appear at a meeting of the committee to review the problems and dangers of pollution.

Dr. David Pugh of Chester was given a complete history of the progress of the committee. He pointed out the American

Three States Join In Hunt For Woman

Law enforcement authorities in three states are searching for a 23-year-old Chester woman who has been missing since Aug. 14.

Cpl. H. A. McGinnis of the West Virginia state police in Weirton said the search for Inez Bamblink has been expanded to Maryland and Ohio.

Cpl. McGinnis said Miss Bamblink, whom he identified as being a retarded invalid, was last seen Aug. 14 riding in a car with Frank Earl Brown of Keyser.

Brown had been visiting Miss Bamblink and her foster mother, Mrs. Hazel Mickael, he added.

McGinnis said Brown has been charged with allegedly stealing Mrs. Michael's car and apparently has left the state.

He said the car was found a week ago in Garrett County, Md., near the West Virginia state line.

14 Arrested In Midland Gaming Raid

Fourteen area men were arrested early today in a gambling raid on the Midland Health Club at 506 Midland Ave., Midland, by Beaver County detectives in cooperation with the Pennsylvania state police and Midland police.

Officers said a dice game was found in process on the second floor of the establishment.

Two men listed as operators were arrested and arraigned before Justice of the Peace Herbert Gilbert of Chippewa Township on charges filed by Detective Frank Panzanella of Beaver County. They were identified as Daniel Livada, 24, of 33-A Midland Heights and John Steven Krakar, 30, of Smiths Ferry RD 1.

The complaint charges them with establishing a gambling place, disorderly house, enticing persons to gamble, being a common gambler and public nuisance. They were released on $2,000 property bond. Each will face a hearing later.

Twelve patrons were charged with "gaming" before Squire Gilbert. Pennsylvania state police said summones will be sent the patrons by registered mail. Officers did not reveal the names, saying they will be made public after the notices are mailed.

The raid was conducted at 2:30 a.m.

Confiscated were cards, money, dice and other gambling devices.

Old Truism Still Working

East Liverpool Residents Seen In Chicago Crowds

By MAURICE RAPPORT

CHICAGO — Everyone is familiar with the truism that no matter where you go in the world, you'll always run across at least one other person from East Liverpool.

It has proved itself again at the Democratic National Convention, not once, but several times.

On the convention floor Monday night, I was surprised to hear someone shout: "Mr. Rapport!" and then a beautiful young woman came running toward me. It turned out she was Miss Brigid O'Farrell, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy O'Farrell of Bradshaw Ave.

She is working on the floor as a page in behalf of Vice President Hubert Humphrey. She is on the vice president's staff the year around. We chatted about mutual acquaintances in East Liverpool and she asked me to pass along the word to her

THE MAYOR pointed out the garage was built in 1963 at a cost of approximately $500,000. It was four years later that he took office.

"This is one of the things I inherited when I came into office," he said. "It's too late now for anyone to complain. The city has the garage and I think it is up to us to do the best we can to 'sell' it to the public for downtown parking.

"It's not a case of something being all black or all white. But in recent months, it has enjoyed an increase in patronage and I believe the public is being sold gradually on its use."

The mayor said he did not have comparative figures available yesterday afternoon on the income from the garage property, as opposed to maintenance and other overhead expenses. He pointed out the revenue figures are lumped in with receipts from the city's other off-street parking facilities.

But the mayor said he hopes to have separated the figures by Thursday, when he is due to confer with Don Eckert, city planning coordinator. Eckert is scheduled to stop at Findlay for a study of the pros and cons

LBJ 'Hints' Endorsement Of Humphrey

Statements Widely Interpreted That He'd Prefer HHH

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson, while declaring a hands-off attitude toward the work of the Democratic National Convention, has edged close to an indirect endorsement of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Meeting with newsmen at an informal 60th birthday party here Tuesday night, Johnson said he hoped the views of the Democratic and Republican presidential candidates "will not be too divergent" so the world won't have to wait until the November election to assess the nation's future course.

With Vietnam and foreign policy obviously uppermost in his mind, Johnson's statement was widely interpreted as meaning he would prefer a Humphrey nomination—though he carefully had some kind words, too, for the vice president's principal rivals, Sens. Eugene J. McCarthy and George McGovern.

Republican nominee Richard M. Nixon is on record with Vietnam views much closer to those of Johnson and Humphrey than either McCarthy or McGovern.

The President passed up a chance to fly to Chicago for a birthday salute at the convention. But he said he might go later—after candidates have been nominated.

The presidential nominating is set for Wednesday, the vice presidential selecting for Thursday.

Old Truism Still Working

East Liverpool Residents Seen In Chicago Crowds

This is the second in a series of stories by Maurice Rapport, 18th Congressional District delegate, who is acting as The Review's special correspondent at the Democratic National Convention.

By MAURICE RAPPORT

CHICAGO — Everyone is familiar with the truism that no matter where you go in the world, you'll always run across at least one other person from East Liverpool.

It has proved itself again at the Democratic National Convention, not once, but several times.

On the convention floor Monday night. I was surprised to hear someone shout: "Mr. Rapport!" and then a beautiful young woman came running toward me. It turned out she was Miss Brigid O'Farrell, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy O'Farrell of Bradshaw Ave.

She is working on the floor as a page in behalf of Vice President Hubert Humphrey. She is on the vice president's staff the year around. We chatted about mutual acquaintances in East Liverpool and she asked me to pass along the word to her

Voter Sit-In

LAS CRUCES, N. M. (AP) — Dona County, in southern New Mexico, was plagued with faulty voting machines in Tuesday's New Mexico primary. One voter at an inoperative machine pulled a chair into the booth and sat out a three-hour wait for his machine to be repaired.

Leaked Big-Money Secret

Biggest Wall Street Firm Cited With Fraud By SEC

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Securities and Exchange Commission has leveled fraud charges against Wall Street's biggest securities firm on grounds that it leaked a big-money secret only to certain major investors.

The regulatory agency set no date Tuesday when it announced hearings would be held on charges by its staff against the nation's biggest and best known broker-dealer, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith.

Nine officers and five salesmen of the firm, as well as 15 institutional investors—the alleged receivers of the hot tip from Merrill Lynch—also were called on the carpet.

"We are convinced that none of our people acted wrongfully and you can be sure we will defend our position vigorously," Merrill Lynch said in a statement issued in New York.

John Haire, chairman of Anchor Corp., into which Investors Management Co., one of the cited firms, was consolidated recently, said:

"To the best of our knowledge, we did not receive any nonpublic information regarding Douglas Aircraft from Merrill Lynch which was not available to us from other sources."

According to the SEC, Merrill Lynch was helping Douglas Aircraft Co. prepare a bond issue when it learned the big plane-builder's earnings, contrary to earlier optimistic reports, were in bad shape.

The SEC version of what followed is that this word passed through the Merrill Lynch personnel to a chosen few investors and that immediately thereafter these began to sell off their holdings in Douglas in the expectation that its value was about to drop.

Meanwhile, the regulatory agency said, other Douglas shareowners were left in the dark—indeed, Merrill Lynch continued to sell Douglas to anyone who wanted to buy, the SEC said.

The dumping lasted half a week—until June 24, when Douglas publicly announced it might be faced with a no-profit year.

During the unloading, the SEC said, the large investors it has cited cleared their portfolios of 190,000 shares of the unwanted stock. An informed source said these shares sold for some $4.5 million more than they would have brought if traded at the price that prevailed June 29.

To reward Merrill Lynch for sharing the secret with them, the SEC said, the favored customers, when makng subsequent large transactions with other firms, would direct that the commissions be split, part going to Merrill Lynch.

In Wall Street parlance, this is a "give up," a practice the SEC has already drawn a bead on in hearings it opened in July. The New York Stock Exchange, formerly a defender of give ups, announced recently it was prepared to see them banned.

Merrill Lynch personnel cited were Winthrop Lenz, chairman of the executive committee; Gillette K. Martin, senior vice president; seven vice presidents and five salesmen.

The institutional investors cited included Fairfield Partners; J. M. Hartwell & Co.; J. M. Hartwell & Co., Inc.; Hartwell Associates; Park Westlake Associates; Van Strum & Towne, Inc.; Fleschner Becker Associates; A. W. Jones & Co.; A. W. Jones Associates; City Associates; A. W. Jones & Co.; A. W. Jones Associates; City Associates; Burden Investors Services and William A. M. Burden & Co.

Will Open Thursday Evening

Varied Program Offered In New Cumberland Fair

NEW CUMBERLAND — Entertainment to be featured at the Lions Club free fair which will open here Thursday evening was announced today by John D. Herron, general chairman.

The New Cumberland Junior High School band directed by Wayne Westfall will open the program with a concert at 7:30 tomorrow night. Miss Karen Hobbs, a member of the 80-piece band, will be featured in a baton twirling exhibition.

Friday evening the fairgrounds will come alive in a "Battle of the Bands," with area musical groups participating, Herron said.

Saturday afternoon amusement rides will be half price, Herron announced. That evening the P. N. A. Youth Folk Dancers will present native Polish dances in authentic costumes. The 40 young performers are under the direction of Mrs. John Burda and Mrs. Edward Filak and have entertained throughout the tri-state area.

Labor Day afternoon the New Cumberland Young Women's Club will sponsor a doll show and pet show and the Lions will conduct a "Junior Olympics," including races and catching a greased pig.

Monday evening the Casey School of Dance and Parke Hill's Guitars will conclude the eighth annual community observance with performances.

The annual fair is held at the Junior High School athletic field, where construction of stands and buildings has been under way for three weeks.

Admission to the fair grounds is free.

Herron, in announcing the schedule, said this year's fair "should provide ample local entertainment to discourage distant travel during the dangerous holiday period." Each year the fair has been offered as one of the community service activities of the Lions.

Varied Program Offered In New Cumberland Fair

NEW CUMBERLAND — Entertainment to be featured at the Lions Club free fair which will open here Thursday evening was announced today by John D. Herron, general chairman.

The New Cumberland Junior High School band directed by Wayne Westfall will open the program with a concert at 7:30 tomorrow night. Miss Karen Hobbs, a member of the 80-piece band, will be featured in a baton twirling exhibition.

Friday evening the fairgrounds will come alive in a "Battle of the Bands," with area musical groups participating, Herron said.

Saturday afternoon amusement rides will be half price, Herron announced. That evening the P. N. A. Youth Folk Dancers will present native Polish dances in authentic costumes. The 40 young performers are under the direction of Mrs. John Burda and Mrs. Edward Filak and have entertained throughout the tri-state area.

Labor Day afternoon the New Cumberland Young Women's Club will sponsor a doll show and pet show and the Lions will conduct a "Junior Olympics," including races and catching a greased pig.

Monday evening the Casey School of Dance and Parke Hill's Guitars will conclude the eighth annual community observance with performances.

The annual fair is held at the Junior High School athletic field, where construction of stands and buildings has been under way for three weeks.

Admission to the fair grounds is free.

Herron, in announcing the schedule, said this year's fair "should provide ample local entertainment to discourage distant travel during the dangerous holiday period." Each year the fair has been offered as one of the community service activities of the Lions.

Fighting A Subtle War

While their liberal leaders struggle to reach a compromise settlement with the Soviet Union, Czechoslovakians are waging a subtle war with occupation forces to let the world know they are not submitting.

It is important for the Czechs to maintain their position that the invasion was against their will to keep the pressure of world opinion on the Soviet Union.

Clandestine radio broadcasts keep the country informed and is a refinement of the counterpropanda system used against the Nazis.

A NEW ADDITION to the Czechs' war on nerves arsenal has the Russians running around in circles.

Street signs have either been removed or interchanged, names on sign posts have been obliterated with paint and the Russians cannot find their way around in the unfamiliar Czech cities.

The Czechs suddenly have forgotten their Russian and only shake their heads sorrowfully when confused tank commanders ask for directions.

"Russians Go Home" are familiar slogans on signs all over the country and students debate the invasion with any of the Red-bloc soldiers that will talk to them.

In one end of Wenceslas Square, candles burn in silent protest of the killing of a 14-year-old boy by Russian soldiers last week.

Although the occupation has not gone as far as that of the Nazis, the Czechs are ready if the worst comes.

They learned that Czech farmers can be terribly slow-footed and production can slip by 50 per cent.

German occupation forces also got a lesson in the ineptness of Czech factories. In several instances, Czech factories produced the wrong products for many months after they had been ordered to produce war materials.

IN OTHER CASES, bad ammunition showed up, shipments became lost and unexplainable accidents occurred frequently.

It is hoped a satisfactory agreement can be negotiated and the citizens of Czechoslovakia will not have to recall all their old skills in sabotage and underground tactics.

In the meantime, while the war of words goes on, the Czechs have proven themselves valiant in the face of overwhelming odds.

Crisis Word Anxiously Awaited

Romanian officials are fearful their country may be the next target of Soviet aggression because of their independent policy.

Several factors give them hope they may escape the fate of Soviet occupation with its spine-shivering reminders of the Nazi era.

In Peking, Premier Chou En-lai of Communist China has pledged support of Romania's government if it comes to a showdown. That alone could kill off Soviet fervor to crush Romania.

While being independent and supporting Czechoslovakia liberalism, Romania has maintained ties to Russia and does not pose the threat to the Soviets as Czechoslovakia.

Romania's geographic location also is in it's favor since it is hemmed in by the Soviet Union, Hungary and Bulgaria.

On the other side of the ledger, Romania continues to support Czechoslovakia in spite of the Soviet-bloc—a policy that is not looked on with favor in the Kremlin.

Reports of an impending invasion flow into Bucharest in a steady stream and tend to keep officials nervous.

Even with ample reason to be somewhat optimistic, Romanians are on pins and needles. They see the Soviet Union as an angry animal, ready to lash out at any time in a completely unpredictable manner.

Not Likely

The elaborate security system cooked up for the Democratic National Convention, including the electronic gear, just isn't living up to expectations.

Those little magnetic cards that light up the tiny stop or go lights at the gates are not working well at all.

The system is supposed to keep all unofficial types off the convention floor through the card and light setup.

But the lights keep turning red when they aren't supposed to and the guards have taken it upon themselves to wave delegates, newsmen and visitors on through the checkpoint if they look official enough.

It is another triumph of man over machine.

But don't get too excited that the triumph will set a convention trend that will see the dismantling of the Hubert Humphrey political machine chugging around in Chicago — nothing that exciting is likely to occur.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

In connection with the effort to have the State Highway Department endeavor to preserve the Wellsville River Museum when Route 7 is relocated, I have outlined my views to Mr. Levi Kimble of the Ohio Department of Highways as follows:

I understand an effort is being made to "save" the Wellsville Historical Society's River Museum.

I am the Museum's next door neighbor, and a lifetime member of the Historical Society and a former trustee of the Museum. Maybe I still am. I was appointed, I guess, to fill out the board, and, like so many other trustees, never attended a meeting.

IF THERE were something to save, I would not be writing this letter. But the facts are these. Back in the 1950's when the Musum was promoted by Mr. Ed Pugh, he enlisted the aid of many people in selling the idea. He cajoled the Library Board to buy the old Aten property. He, himself, and his parents put in a prodigious amount of work, along with many other people whom he importuned to render assistance. He obtained the loan of some handmade ship models, some pictures, some old documents, bills of lading and invoices pertaining to the Ohio River traffic. There were also some memorabilia collected of questionable merit.

The Museum opened with great fanfare, with Gov. Lausche in attendance, and for awhile the Museum would have a small amount of interest. But inasmuch as the material on display was not of particular moment, interest was not maintained. It had very little traffic, and finally was open principally on Sunday afternoons with the elder Pughs in charge.

WHEN MR. PUGH, wo had been a schoolteacher, resigned his position and became editor of The Wellsville Press, his time was pretty much taken up, and for practical purposes, he dropped the Museum like a hot potato. After the elder Mr. Pugh died and Mrs. Pugh became ill, practically no one took interest in the project.

As a result of early promotional effort groups or individuals would come and tried to visit the Museum, but it was rarely open. From time to time different presidents of the Historical Society would try to find someone to take the Museum under his wing, but without signal success. Since Ed Pugh abdicated his interest and is now living in Florida, there is no one that has a real interest in the Museum.

I can only feel that the hue and cry being raised is only due to someone's personal interest. I feel that the Museum should be abandoned, the property sold, and the proceeds for the property revert back to the Library Board, where it can be used to advantage for a service to a larger segment of the population.

Yours very truly,
MYRON WEIS
Wellsville

A Perfect Smoke Screen

VICTOR RIESEL

Angry Labor Men Veto Ted

CHICAGO — There's far more than a mere generation gap now between Ted Kennedy and the politically powerful leaders of American labor. Charisma or no charisma, the Kennedy name or no Kennedy name, he has lost "the movement."

Victor Riesel

The young gentleman from Massachusetts, for what it's worth (and in a national muscle), has turned off the big league union chiefs.

As they sat before television sets in their rooms and official headquarters suite here at the Hotel Drake, they were angered by his attack on Lyndon Johnson's policies, aghast over the Senator's ultra-dovish posture and alarmed by his failure to sear the Soviets for invading Czechoslovakia.

Probably at this moment he could not care less. But so long as this generation of AFL-CIO labor men are around, Edward Kennedy will have to fight them for any national nomination.

Some who last week came in roaring "Ted for Vice President" now went out in a whisper of unprintables.

They had talked of a Humphrey-Kennedy combine as a "dream ticket." At the same time, they had dialogued about more available vice presidential candidates to bolster Mr. Humphrey.

HOW DOES ONE "bolster" Hubert Humphrey?

Some had come away from conversations with Mayor Richard Daley believing this should be the year of the ethnic pitch—the appeal to the foreign-born voter and his family, the year of intensity over Middle and Eastern Europe and the Middle East.

These "nationality groups" could swing such cities as New York, Buffalo, Erie County, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Chicago, Detroit, Milwaukee, San Francisco and Los Angeles, is was said.

Who could arouse these ethnic folks? Such a running mate could do more than bolster Mr. Humphrey—he could carry him, now that the ghetto vote is a brooding, uncertain one.

More and more among the labor men who have concentrated here labor's full leadership power, the name of San Francisco's Mayor Joseph L. Alioto has cropped up.

This "West Coast Lindsay" now is the favorite of labor's political pros, the men who shift the high-powered gears of the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE), which stretches its computerized precinct mechanisms into 1,500 cities.

FOR THEM 52-yearpold Joe Alioto fits the ticket. In last year's mayoralty election, he ran in opposition to a referedndum which demanded "immediate" withdrawal from South Vietnam. Remember that in labor's sanctums even Hubert Humphrey appears to be showing the white of the dove.

Furthermore, Mayor Alioto, say COPE's men, is the retort elegante to Spiro Agnew. The San Franciscan heads the nation's 12th largest city. He knows his hippies, and the intricate problems of an old city jammed wtih ethnic groups.

At the same platform committee session which heard AFL-CIO leader George Meany attack solutions offered by what he called "semiskilled intellectuals," Joe Alioto denounced "police-dog philosophy" as a solution to riots and black revolution. This parallels much of the thinking of the AFL-CIO's own intellectuals—reflected in Mr. Meany's statement.

IN THESE LABOR CIRCLES there is talk, too, about Maine's Sen. Ed Muskie, New Jersey's Governor Richard Hughes, and Ambassador Sargent Shriver. For the last, there is no enthusiasm. For Sen. Muskie, there's a 'he's a good fellow" feeling but a "what can he do for the ticket?" feeling as well. For Richard Hughes there is respect. But for Alioto, there are gleams in the eyes of the men who will have to run the campaign.

Does it matter what labor thinks? Indeed it does. A Democratic convention, in recent history, never, but never, has nominated a ticket without the advice and consent of the labor caucus.

In '44, Franklin Roosevelt said "clear it with Sidney" (Hillman, the late leader of the CIO's Political Action Committee, and president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers). FDR referred to the vice presidential candidate.

In '48, old-line labor backed Harry Truman against such liberals as Walter Reuther, Mrs. Roosevelt and the ADA who were for Dwight D. Eisenhower.

In '52, labor vetoed Alben Barkley, in '56 John F. Kennedy, and in '60 Lyndon Johnson almost. Thus it has been through the years. And thus it will happen here.

Labor men don't think of his power as a veto. Anybody can have his own ticket. But not everybody can get the money and manpower rolling automatically, whatever be his clan or charisma.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Reds Goof

The shots in Prague are being "heard 'round the world." They not only have provoked disapproval of Soviet imperialism by the hitherto faithful followers of communism in many parts of Europe and Latin America, but may have produced inside the Soviet Union itself an uneasy feeling.

Soviet communism heretofore has been supported with relatively little dissent by the Communist parties in other lands. Today, however, the French and Italian Communists and many of the Communists inside the Eastern bloc in Europe are outspoken in their disagreement with the course taken by the men in the Kremlin who imposed military discipline to suppress the leaders of Czechoslovakia when they ventured to disagree with Moscow on Communist philosophy.

THIS COULD BE the beginning of a revolution within Communist circles everywhere, including the Soviet Union. The greatest danger to the Soviet regime lies in its own armies. It was the Russian troops and sailors who overthrew the Czar and gave communism its opportunity to seize power.

Certainly inside the Communist armies in the Soviet Union as well as in the satellite countries there are many individuals who believe in some of the same reforms that the Czech Communists advocated.

When the Moscow regime adds up the possible advantages and compares them with the obvious disadvantages of the policy just undertaken to overthrow an established government in Czechoslovakia and substitute a puppet regime, it will be found that the risks far outweigh any benefits for communism. For not merely the peoples of Czechoslovakia but of every one of the Eastern-bloc countries are unhappy about what has happened. This means that the Soviet government will not only have to maintain a large army in Czechoslovakia, but may have to prepare to meet similar disturbances in other countries of Eastern Europe.

Certainly the effect of the Soviet aggression in Czechoslovakia will cause American negotiators in Paris to have second thoughts about what recognition of the Communist "National Liberation Front" could mean for the South Vietnamese in the event that a "coalition government" in Saigon is accepted as the price of peace.

Sen. Eugene McCarthy says he looks upon the parleys at the United Nations as "playing games," but it is not likely that his flippant remark will be shared by informed observers. For even if United Nations action is blocked in the Security Council and only a resolution of disapproval is finally adopted in the General Assembly, the world will have united in condemnation of Soviet aggression and imperialism.

Gov. John Conaaly of Texas, who has made an appeal for a strong plank on Vietnam in the Democratic platform and has called for a policy of resoluteness, criticized McCarthy for his views about the Czechoslovakian crisis and also for advocating "courses of appeasement and surrender" in Vietnam. The Texas governor added:

"It is beyond any question that utterances such as these cannot do anything but hinder the negotiations which we have had under way for several months in Paris with North Vietnam."

This is one of many evidences that the attempt to make the Vietnam War a political issue inside the Democratic party has backfired, because within the past few days the American people have learned that any compromise in Vietnam with Communist imperialism is risky.

THE INVASION of Czechoslovakia has vindicated the American position in looking upon Soviet communism as a menace to freedom.

Another significant development is the reversal of the position of Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, Democratic leader, who until the Czechoslovakian tragedy had favored the return of a substantial number of American troops from Europe. He now says that a question may arise in other countries in Europe about their own safety and that U.S. troop withdrawal "should be held in abeyance because of the circumstances which confront us at this time."

When the Soviets themselves begin to appraise the whole situation, they will perhaps perceive that they have made a mistake both internally and externally. They might conceivably discover in the not-far-distant future that there are many persons inside the Soviet Union, too, who may seek to obtain the very reforms which the Czech leaders tried in vain to achieve.

Street signs have either been removed or interchanged, names on sign posts have been obliterated with paint and the Russians cannot find their way around in the unfamiliar Czech cities.

The Czechs suddenly have forgotten their Russian and only shake their heads sorrowfully when confused tank commanders ask for directions.

"Russians Go Home" are familiar slogans on signs all over the country and students debate the invasion with any of the Red-bloc soldiers that will talk to them.

In one end of Wenceslas Square, candles burn in silent protest of the killing of a 14-year-old boy by Russian soldiers last week.

Although the occupation has not gone as far as that of the Nazis, the Czechs are ready if the worst comes.

They learned that Czech farmers can be terribly slow-footed and production can slip by 50 per cent.

German occupation forces also got a lesson in the ineptness of Czech factories. In several instances, Czech factories produced the wrong products for many months after they had been ordered to produce war materials.

IN OTHER CASES, bad ammunition showed up, shipments became lost and unexplainable accidents occurred frequently.

It is hoped a satisfactory agreement can be negotiated and the citizens of Czechoslovakia will not have to recall all their old skills in sabotage and underground tactics.

In the meantime, while the war of words goes on, the Czechs have proven themselves valiant in the face of overwhelming odds.

Crisis Word Anxiously Awaited

Romanian officials are fearful their country may be the next target of Soviet aggression because of their independent policy.

Several factors give them hope they may escape the fate of Soviet occupation with its spine-shivering reminders of the Nazi era.

In Peking, Premier Chou En-lai of Communist China has pledged support of Romania's government if it comes to a showdown. That alone could kill off Soviet fervor to crush Romania.

While being independent and supporting Czechoslovakia liberalism, Romania has maintained ties to Russia and does not pose the threat to the Soviets as Czechoslovakia.

Romania's geographic location also is in it's favor since it is hemmed in by the Soviet Union, Hungary and Bulgaria.

On the other side of the ledger, Romania continues to support Czechoslovakia in spite of the Soviet-bloc—a policy that is not looked on with favor in the Kremlin.

Reports of an impending invasion flow into Bucharest in a steady stream and tend to keep officials nervous.

Even with ample reason to be somewhat optimistic, Romanians are on pins and needles. They see the Soviet Union as an angry animal, ready to lash out at any time in a completely unpredictable manner.

Not Likely

The elaborate security system cooked up for the Democratic National Convention, including the electronic gear, just isn't living up to expectations.

Those little magnetic cards that light up the tiny stop or go lights at the gates are not working well at all.

The system is supposed to keep all unofficial types off the convention floor through the card and light setup.

But the lights keep turning red when they aren't supposed to and the guards have taken it upon themselves to wave delegates, newsmen and visitors on through the checkpoint if they look official enough.

It is another triumph of man over machine.

But don't get too excited that the triumph will set a convention trend that will see the dismantling of the Hubert Humphrey political machine chugging around in Chicago — nothing that exciting is likely to occur.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

In connection with the effort to have the State Highway Department endeavor to preserve the Wellsville River Museum when Route 7 is relocated, I have outlined my views to Mr. Levi Kimble of the Ohio Department of Highways as follows:

I understand an effort is being made to "save" the Wellsville Historical Society's River Museum.

I am the Museum's next door neighbor, and a lifetime member of the Historical Society and a former trustee of the Museum. Maybe I still am. I was appointed, I guess, to fill out the board, and, like so many other trustees, never attended a meeting.

IF THERE were something to save, I would not be writing this letter. But the facts are these. Back in the 1950's when the Musum was promoted by Mr. Ed Pugh, he enlisted the aid of many people in selling the idea. He cajoled the Library Board to buy the old Aten property. He, himself, and his parents put in a prodigious amount of work, along with many other people whom he importuned to render assistance. He obtained the loan of some handmade ship models, some pictures, some old documents, bills of lading and invoices pertaining to the Ohio River traffic. There were also some memorabilia collected of questionable merit.

The Museum opened with great fanfare, with Gov. Lausche in attendance, and for awhile the Museum would have a small amount of interest. But inasmuch as the material on display was not of particular moment, interest was not maintained. It had very little traffic, and finally was open principally on Sunday afternoons with the elder Pughs in charge.

WHEN MR. PUGH, wo had been a schoolteacher, resigned his position and became editor of The Wellsville Press, his time was pretty much taken up, and for practical purposes, he dropped the Museum like a hot potato. After the elder Mr. Pugh died and Mrs. Pugh became ill, practically no one took interest in the project.

As a result of early promotional effort groups or individuals would come and tried to visit the Museum, but it was rarely open. From time to time different presidents of the Historical Society would try to find someone to take the Museum under his wing, but without signal success. Since Ed Pugh abdicated his interest and is now living in Florida, there is no one that has a real interest in the Museum.

I can only feel that the hue and cry being raised is only due to someone's personal interest. I feel that the Museum should be abandoned, the property sold, and the proceeds for the property revert back to the Library Board, where it can be used to advantage for a service to a larger segment of the population.

Yours very truly,
MYRON WEIS
Wellsville

A Perfect Smoke Screen

VICTOR RIESEL

Angry Labor Men Veto Ted

CHICAGO — There's far more than a mere generation gap now between Ted Kennedy and the politically powerful leaders of American labor. Charisma or no charisma, the Kennedy name or no Kennedy name, he has lost "the movement."

Victor Riesel

The young gentleman from Massachusetts, for what it's worth (and in a national muscle), has turned off the big league union chiefs.

As they sat before television sets in their rooms and official headquarters suite here at the Hotel Drake, they were angered by his attack on Lyndon Johnson's policies, aghast over the Senator's ultra-dovish posture and alarmed by his failure to sear the Soviets for invading Czechoslovakia.

Probably at this moment he could not care less. But so long as this generation of AFL-CIO labor men are around, Edward Kennedy will have to fight them for any national nomination.

Some who last week came in roaring "Ted for Vice President" now went out in a whisper of unprintables.

They had talked of a Humphrey-Kennedy combine as a "dream ticket." At the same time, they had dialogued about more available vice presidential candidates to bolster Mr. Humphrey.

HOW DOES ONE "bolster" Hubert Humphrey?

Some had come away from conversations with Mayor Richard Daley believing this should be the year of the ethnic pitch—the appeal to the foreign-born voter and his family, the year of intensity over Middle and Eastern Europe and the Middle East.

These "nationality groups" could swing such cities as New York, Buffalo, Erie County, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Chicago, Detroit, Milwaukee, San Francisco and Los Angeles, is was said.

Who could arouse these ethnic folks? Such a running mate could do more than bolster Mr. Humphrey—he could carry him, now that the ghetto vote is a brooding, uncertain one.

More and more among the labor men who have concentrated here labor's full leadership power, the name of San Francisco's Mayor Joseph L. Alioto has cropped up.

This "West Coast Lindsay" now is the favorite of labor's political pros, the men who shift the high-powered gears of the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE), which stretches its computerized precinct mechanisms into 1,500 cities.

FOR THEM 52-yearpold Joe Alioto fits the ticket. In last year's mayoralty election, he ran in opposition to a referedndum which demanded "immediate" withdrawal from South Vietnam. Remember that in labor's sanctums even Hubert Humphrey appears to be showing the white of the dove.

Furthermore, Mayor Alioto, say COPE's men, is the retort elegante to Spiro Agnew. The San Franciscan heads the nation's 12th largest city. He knows his hippies, and the intricate problems of an old city jammed wtih ethnic groups.

At the same platform committee session which heard AFL-CIO leader George Meany attack solutions offered by what he called "semiskilled intellectuals," Joe Alioto denounced "police-dog philosophy" as a solution to riots and black revolution. This parallels much of the thinking of the AFL-CIO's own intellectuals—reflected in Mr. Meany's statement.

IN THESE LABOR CIRCLES there is talk, too, about Maine's Sen. Ed Muskie, New Jersey's Governor Richard Hughes, and Ambassador Sargent Shriver. For the last, there is no enthusiasm. For Sen. Muskie, there's a 'he's a good fellow" feeling but a "what can he do for the ticket?" feeling as well. For Richard Hughes there is respect. But for Alioto, there are gleams in the eyes of the men who will have to run the campaign.

Does it matter what labor thinks? Indeed it does. A Democratic convention, in recent history, never, but never, has nominated a ticket without the advice and consent of the labor caucus.

In '44, Franklin Roosevelt said "clear it with Sidney" (Hillman, the late leader of the CIO's Political Action Committee, and president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers). FDR referred to the vice presidential candidate.

In '48, old-line labor backed Harry Truman against such liberals as Walter Reuther, Mrs. Roosevelt and the ADA who were for Dwight D. Eisenhower.

In '52, labor vetoed Alben Barkley, in '56 John F. Kennedy, and in '60 Lyndon Johnson almost. Thus it has been through the years. And thus it will happen here.

Labor men don't think of his power as a veto. Anybody can have his own ticket. But not everybody can get the money and manpower rolling automatically, whatever he his clan or charisma.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Reds Goof

The shots in Prague are being "heard 'round the world." They not only have provoked disapproval of Soviet imperialism by the hitherto faithful followers of communism in many parts of Europe and Latin America, but may have produced inside the Soviet Union itself an uneasy feeling.

Soviet communism heretofore has been supported with relatively little dissent by the Communist parties in other lands. Today, however, the French and Italian Communists and many of the Communists inside the Eastern bloc in Europe are outspoken in their disagreement with the course taken by the men in the Kremlin who imposed military discipline to suppress the leaders of Czechoslovakia when they ventured to disagree with Moscow on Communist philosophy.

THIS COULD BE the beginning of a revolution within Communist circles everywhere, including the Soviet Union. The greatest danger to the Soviet regime lies in its own armies. It was the Russian troops and sailors who overthrew the Czar and gave communism its opportunity to seize power.

Certainly inside the Communist armies in the Soviet Union as well as in the satellite countries there are many individuals who believe in some of the same reforms that the Czech Communists advocated.

When the Moscow regime adds up the possible advantages and compares them with the obvious disadvantages of the policy just undertaken to overthrow an established government in Czechoslovakia and substitute a puppet regime, it will be found that the risks far outweigh any benefits for communism. For not merely the peoples of Czechoslovakia but of every one of the Eastern-bloc countries are unhappy about what has happened. This means that the Soviet government will not only have to maintain a large army in Czechoslovakia, but may have to prepare to meet similar disturbances in other countries of Eastern Europe.

Certainly the effect of the Soviet aggression in Czechoslovakia will cause American negotiators in Paris to have second thoughts about what recognition of the Communist "National Liberation Front" could mean for the South Vietnamese in the event that a "coalition government" in Saigon is accepted as the price of peace.

Sen. Eugene McCarthy says he looks upon the parleys at the United Nations as "playing games," but it is not likely that his flippant remark will be shared by informed observers. For even if United Nations action is blocked in the Security Council and only a resolution of disapproval is finally adopted in the General Assembly, the world will have united in condemnation of Soviet aggression and imperialism.

Gov. John Conaaly of Texas, who has made an appeal for a strong plank on Vietnam in the Democratic platform and has called for a policy of resoluteness, criticized McCarthy for his views about the Czechoslovakian crisis and also for advocating "courses of appeasement and surrender" in Vietnam. The Texas governor added:

"It is beyond any question that utterances such as these cannot do anything but hinder the negotiations which we have had under way for several months in Paris with North Vietnam."

This is one of many evidences that the attempt to make the Vietnam War a political issue inside the Democratic party has backfired, because within the past few days the American people have learned that any compromise in Vietnam with Communist imperialism is risky.

THE INVASION of Czechoslovakia has vindicated the American position in looking upon Soviet communism as a menace to freedom.

Another significant development is the reversal of the position of Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, Democratic leader, who until the Czechoslovakian tragedy had favored the return of a substantial number of American troops from Europe. He now says that a question may arise in other countries in Europe about their own safety and that U.S. troop withdrawal "should be held in abeyance because of the circumstances which confront us at this time."

When the Soviets themselves begin to appraise the whole situation, they will perhaps perceive that they have made a mistake both internally and externally. They might conceivably discover in the not-far-distant future that there are many persons inside the Soviet Union, too, who may seek to obtain the very reforms which the Czech leaders tried in vain to achieve.

I also ran into Tom Chema, former president of the Key Club, who is a visitor at the convention. He told me he is enrolled for the fall term at Harvard Law School. Tom drove here with Bob Curran, the auto salesman, who seems lost without his sidekick, Harry McConville, the tax man.

I also had a chat with former Gov. Mike DiSalle, who was making the rounds in a neat, gray suit, shaking hands with his friends in the Ohio delegation. He asked to be remembered to his friends, Ralph and Pete Amato of Wellsville.

In making the rounds of the amphitheater, I miss the faces of so many men who played prominent roles in the conventions in the past — the late Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, who was a serious contender for the presidency 20 years ago and a frequent visitor in East Liverpool; Speaker Sam Rayburn, who could tell tales that kept one fascinated for hours, and President John F. Kennedy and his brother, Robert, both victims of assassins.

I had an interesting chat with Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago when he stepped down from the rostrum after giving the address of welcome to the delegates. I introduced myself as he walked back to take his seat with the Illinois delegation. I found he appears taller and thinner in person than on the television screen.

WE CHATTED for a few minutes and he referred to the convention as "a great thing for Chicago" and "the greatest Democratic convention ever held." I asked him about the taxi, bus and telephone strikes, but he brushed them off as "minor inconveniences that anyone can overcome." I tried to find out which way the Illinois delegation will go on the first ballot, but the mayor said that question would not be decided until shortly before the roll call vote of the states tonight.

There is plenty of hooopla and standing in the aisles. It seems that many of the delegates prefer milling through the huge auditorium to taking a comfortable seat. The huge auditorium is carpeted wall to wall in material that is four inches thick. The entire floor is covered with royal blue carpeting, except the aisles, which are done in a brilliant red.

I am still receiving letters, telegrams and telephone calls from all parts of the United States asking me to support this or that candidate. And my secretary, Dorothy Bondy, informs me that the mail still is piling up. Of all the telephone calls, the one that warmed my heart most came from Lee Rubin, 12½-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Herschel Rubin. He called me at Chicago to express his good wishes and wish me luck at the convention. I have him on my list to receive a souvenir of the convention.

I INTEND to invite the nominee of this convention to speak to the East Liverpool Rotary Club. I regret that being at the convention prevents me from attending the Rotary picnic at Mike Turk's farm, but I expect my friend Ralph Finley ate my share of the goodies.

I am still trying to locate Paul Newman, the movie star, on the convention floor. I promised Nancy Doland I would get his autograph for her.

Mrs. Rapport and our daughter, Marlene, will have "society page" story to tell their friends in East Liverpool upon their return. They attended a reception in honor of Mrs. Hubert Humphrey and her children at the Palmer House. They tell me it was "just beautiful," but I was unable to attend, because it was for women only.

Frank Diamond spotted me on network TV Monday night as I watched an interview with Gov. John Connally of Texas. He sent me a joking telegram from Cincinnati.

Guy Mauro, the Salem attorney and a fellow delegate, tells me that the miniskirts worn by the Chicago women are shorter than those in any other city he has visited.

Our delegation still travels to and from the amphitheater in four chartered buses because of the transportation strike. We are escorted by motorcycle officers and security police with wailing sirens and the police at intersections wave us through, red light or no red light. It makes us feel like a bunch of "VIP's."

Parking

The downtown businessmen's association at Findlay is helping promote the public's use of the facility, the mayor said.

THE MAYOR said at the time the garage was built a major shopping plaza with ample parking space was under construction outside the city. Businessmen and other proponents of the structure felt that the five - level garage would alleviate the downtown parking problem and help offset the almost limitless space available in the suburbs, he said.

Thatcher said East Liverpool might not encounter the same problems that have plagued the Findlay project.

"I think it's primarily a question of East Liverpool's own situation," he said. "It depends upon the real needs of your community, how serious the parking problem is and a lot of other factors. We had a design problem at Findlay that prevents the building from being used more heavily. Some shoppers claim it is too far from the center of the business district. Others say the access ramps are difficult to negotiate."

The mayor said he does not know if the garage patronage has advanced to the point where the building is paying its own way—providing sufficient money to retire the debt and pay the overhead expenses.

"But if it is not paying its own way, it is running pretty close to it now," Thatcher said.

FORMER Mayor John Sausser, who served four years immediately prior to Thatcher, calls the building a "white elephant." He contends that the structure was "ill - conceived and ill - executed" and faults were built in because the structure was designed to crowd "the maximum number of cars into the available space."

The question of Findlay's experiences was raised after Mayor George E. Willshaw proposed last week that East Liverpool might erect one or more concrete decks atop the Ceramic Parking Lot to achieve more parking spaces without the necessity for buying and razing business property.

Eckert will be looking for information when he makes a trip to Ann Arbor and then stops off at Findlay and Canton on his return. Willshaw plans to make a similar investigation of a parking garage operation at Youngstown.

Dr. Pugh, a member of the executive board of the Hancock County Medical Association, promised he will assist the committee in its compaign.

A motion was made to invite the executive board of the Hancock County Medical group to the next meeting of the group.

It was announced that a booth will be set up at the New Cumberland Lions Club fair to show the committee's progress.

It also was announced that Matt Phillips has donated the signs which are to be erected at the entrance of New Cumberland calling attention to the fight against pollution.

The next meeting will be Sept. 17 at 8 p.m. at the city building.

to adjourn and reconvene at 1 p.m. EDT today.

The latest Associated Press count of publicly committed and pledged delegates:

Humphrey 1,166 ¼
McCarthy 490 ¼
McGovern 52
Favorite sons and others 196 ½
Uncommitted 716 ¾

McCarthy was quoted in a copyright interview by Knight Newspapers as saying he thinks Humphrey has the nomination wrapped up.

"I think it was probably settled more than 24 hours ago," McCarthy said.

The stunned McCarthy supporters rushed out a statement saying the Minnesota senator was only being a bit philosophical. Richard M. Goodwin, a top aide, said McCarthy had asked him to say "he has not conceded defeat in the nomination fight."

In the interview, McCarthy estimated it would be too late for even the younger Kennedy, last of the brothers, to stop Humphrey.

An Unruh aide said the session was arranged to "see whether some common front can be put together in favor of some peace candidate."

It was reported Unruh suggested the two contenders drop out and throw their weight behind Kennedy. There was no indication that they agreed. Nevertheless, California reserved in advance the right to place a name in nomination on tonight's roll call.

Johnson said he hopes the views of the Democrat and Republican nominees "will not be too divergent" so the world would have to wait until November to know which way the nation will go.

The Platform Committee's proposed plank on Vietnam parallels Humphrey's viewpoint and administration policies in linking a call for a halt in all bombing of North Vietnam with a resonse from Hanoi.

Antiwar forces have pressed a substitute approach calling for a complete bombing halt without any conditions and urging a cutback in U.S. military activity in South Vietnam.

Weary delegates chanting, "Let's go home, let's go home," forced the breakup of the convention before reaching a vote on Vietnam.

Convention Chairman Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma refused to accept the first motion to adjourn, and anti-war delegates drowned out the efforts of the next scheduled speaker to be heard, even though he was allied with them.

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, the convention host, shouted threats to clear the convention galleries. He roared that he would not stand for "the balconies trying to take over this meeting." At Albert's invitation, Daley made the motion to adjourn.

McCarthy and McGovern forces hailed the adjournment as a victory. McGovern aide Frank Mankiewicz, press secretary to the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, shouted jubilantly, "We have 11 hours to get 80 votes," and said the insurgents were that close to winning their platform battle.

Of all the telephone calls, the one that warmed my heart most came from Lee Rubin, 12½-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Herschel Rubin. He called me at Chicago to express his good wishes and wish me luck at the convention. I have him on my list to receive a souvenir of the convention.

I INTEND to invite the nominee of this convention to speak to the East Liverpool Rotary Club. I regret that being at the convention prevents me from attending the Rotary picnic at Mike Turk's farm, but I expect my friend Ralph Finley ate my share of the goodies.

I am still trying to locate Paul Newman, the movie star, on the convention floor. I promised Nancy Doland I would get his autograph for her.

Mrs. Rapport and our daughter, Marlene, will have "society page" story to tell their friends in East Liverpool upon their return. They attended a reception in honor of Mrs. Hubert Humphrey and her children at the Palmer House. They tell me it was "just beautiful," but I was unable to attend, because it was for women only.

Frank Diamond spotted me on network TV Monday night as I watched an interview with Gov. John Connally of Texas. He sent me a joking telegram from Cincinnati.

Guy Mauro, the Salem attorney and a fellow delegate, tells me that the miniskirts worn by the Chicago women are shorter than those in any other city he has visited.

Our delegation still travels to and from the amphitheater in four chartered buses because of the transportation strike. We are escorted by motorcycle officers and security police with wailing sirens and the police at intersections wave us through, red light or no red light. It makes us feel like a bunch of "VIP's."

Parking

The downtown businessmen's association at Findlay is helping promote the public's use of the facility, the mayor said.

THE MAYOR said at the time the garage was built a major shopping plaza with ample parking space was under construction outside the city. Businessmen and other proponents of the structure felt that the five - level garage would alleviate the downtown parking problem and help offset the almost limitless space available in the suburbs, he said.

Thatcher said East Liverpool might not encounter the same problems that have plagued the Findlay project.

"I think it's primarily a question of East Liverpool's own situation," he said. "It depends upon the real needs of your community, how serious the parking problem is and a lot of other factors. We had a design problem at Findlay that prevents the building from being used more heavily. Some shoppers claim it is too far from the center of the business district. Others say the access ramps are difficult to negotiate."

The mayor said he does not know if the garage patronage has advanced to the point where the building is paying its own way—providing sufficient money to retire the debt and pay the overhead expenses.

"But if it is not paying its own way, it is running pretty close to it now," Thatcher said.

FORMER Mayor John Sausser, who served four years immediately prior to Thatcher, calls the building a "white elephant." He contends that the structure was "ill - conceived and ill - executed" and faults were built in because the structure was designed to crowd "the maximum number of cars into the available space."

The question of Findlay's experiences was raised after Mayor George E. Willshaw proposed last week that East Liverpool might erect one or more concrete decks atop the Ceramic Parking Lot to achieve more parking spaces without the necessity for buying and razing business property.

Eckert will be looking for information when he makes a trip to Ann Arbor and then stops off at Findlay and Canton on his return. Willshaw plans to make a similar investigation of a parking garage operation at Youngstown.

Medical Association has advocated that doctors throughout the country take the lead in the fight against air pollution.

Dr. Pugh, a member of the executive board of the Hancock County Medical Association, promised he will assist the committee in its compaign.

A motion was made to invite the executive board of the Hancock County Medical group to the next meeting of the group.

It was announced that a booth will be set up at the New Cumberland Lions Club fair to show the committee's progress.

It also was announced that Matt Phillips has donated the signs which are to be erected at the entrance of New Cumberland calling attention to the fight against pollution.

The next meeting will be Sept. 17 at 8 p.m. at the city building.

Democrats

to adjourn and reconvene at 1 p.m. EDT today.

The latest Associated Press count of publicly committed and pledged delegates:

Humphrey 1,166 ¼
McCarthy 490 ¼
McGovern 52
Favorite sons and others 196 ½
Uncommitted 716 ¾

McCarthy was quoted in a copyright interview by Knight Newspapers as saying he thinks Humphrey has the nomination wrapped up.

"I think it was probably settled more than 24 hours ago," McCarthy said.

The stunned McCarthy supporters rushed out a statement saying the Minnesota senator was only being a bit philosophical. Richard M. Goodwin, a top aide, said McCarthy had asked him to say "he has not conceded defeat in the nomination fight."

In the interview, McCarthy estimated it would be too late for even the younger Kennedy, last of the brothers, to stop Humphrey.

An Unruh aide said the session was arranged to "see whether some common front can be put together in favor of some peace candidate."

It was reported Unruh suggested the two contenders drop out and throw their weight behind Kennedy. There was no indication that they agreed. Nevertheless, California reserved in advance the right to place a name in nomination on tonight's roll call.

Johnson said he hopes the views of the Democrat and Republican nominees "will not be too divergent" so the world would have to wait until November to know which way the nation will go.

The Platform Committee's proposed plank on Vietnam parallels Humphrey's viewpoint and administration policies in linking a call for a halt in all bombing of North Vietnam with a resonse from Hanoi.

Antiwar forces have pressed a substitute approach calling for a complete bombing halt without any conditions and urging a cutback in U.S. military activity in South Vietnam.

Weary delegates chanting, "Let's go home, let's go home," forced the breakup of the convention before reaching a vote on Vietnam.

Convention Chairman Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma refused to accept the first motion to adjourn, and anti-war delegates drowned out the efforts of the next scheduled speaker to be heard, even though he was allied with them.

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, the convention host, shouted threats to clear the convention galleries. He roared that he would not stand for "the baloonies trying to take over this meeting." At Albert's invitation, Daley made the motion to adjourn.

McCarthy and McGovern forces hailed the adjournment as a victory. McGovern aide Frank Mankiewicz, press secretary to the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, shouted jubilantly, "We have 11 hours to get 80 votes," and said the insurgents were that close to winning their platform battle.

Rogers Home Hit By Steel From Truck

The front porch of a Rogers home was damaged when one of two steel rolls that fell from a passing truck uncoiled and rolled 160 feet onto the property Tuesday at 6:20 p.m.

Some 125 to 150 feet of the 1,200-pound coil ripped out two support posts when it smashed into the porch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bowers of Depot St. along Route 7 through the village.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said the coils rolled from the tractor-trailer rig operated by Vernon Sarver, 32, of Pittsburgh, and owned by P. & T. Trucking Co. of Irwin, Pa.

The binding on the coil snapped, allowing the steel to uncoil like a broken spring. The sheet hit the two front posts on the porch and smashed into the frame of a large picture window. Mrs. Bowers and her three children were inside, about three feet away, watching television.

The steel continued across and off the porch, damaging a pine tree, utility pole and an apple tree.

This was the third similar mishap on the property in two years. The driver was cited for an insecure load.

A Canton woman was injured in a two car accident Tuesday at 11 a.m. on the Y. & O. Rd.

The drivers were Dorothy Faulkner, 29, of Rogers RD 1 and Leah V. Adkins, 31, of Canton. Mrs. Faulkner started to make a left turn as the other car started to pass and the two collided, officers said.

Mrs. Adkins was treated at City Hospital for contusions of the right shoulder.

Lisbon Cases Bring Fines

LISBON — Patricia Delquadri, 42, of 225 W. Washington St. pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol and was fined $150 and costs and was sentenced to three days in the village jail Tuesday night by Mayor Clyde B. Pike.

Jorgen Selsing, 48, of Akron was fined $25 and costs after being found guilty of possession of an altered operator's license. He pleaded no contest.

Chief of Police Leon T. Zahrndt said Selsing, dressed as a woman, presented a driver's license on which the "M" (for male) had been erased. The typewriter strikeover was nearly illegible, the chief said, but appeared to be an "F". Police received a telephone report at 10:15 a.m. yesterday that the "woman" was in the downtown area. The chief detained the defendant for questioning just as he was about to drive away.

In other hearings last night, Fred Campsey of W. High St. was fined $50 ($25 suspended) for harboring a barking dog and Walter J. Hucko, 24, of 323 1st St., Wellsville, was fined $15 for possession of an open bottle of whisky in a vehicle at the fairgrounds. Both pleaded not guilty, but were found guilty by the mayor.

Man, 58, Hurt In Auto Crash

A 58-year-old Beechwood man is in "fair" condition at City Hospital with a possible skull injury suffered Tuesday when his halted car was struck from behind on Pennsylvania Ave. near Mulberry St.

Irving M. DeVaul of 1055 Rubicon St. was hurt when his 1968 model auto was struck by a 1965 model auto operated by Roger Babb, 27, of 508 Hill Blvd., police reported.

Babb pleaded guilty today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance and was fined $10 and costs.

DeVaul told police he stopped to pick up two boys and his car was hit from behind. Patrolman Jack Strobel, the arresting officer, told the court DeVaul pulled to the curb to pick up hitchhikers when his car was hit from the rear. Babb told the judge he agreed with the report except that DeVaul "stopped in the middle of the highway."

The judge commented that DeVaul also may have been in violation. He said he fined a man last week on an Ohio Highway Patrol charge of stopping on a highway to pick up a hitchhiker.

No one was injured in another collision at 8:54 this morning at St. Clair Ave. and Broadway, police reported.

The mishap involved a 1954 four-door sedan driven by Hayward W. Simms of 914 St. Clair Ave. and a 1950 model pickup truck operated by Christ Pallis of 640 Avondale St.

Pallis told police he halted for oncoming traffic, preparing to turn onto Broadway, and his truck was hit from the rear. Simms told officers he took his eyes off the street momentarily while watching two pedestrians standing near the curb at St. Clair Ave. and Broadway. Then, he said, the truck stopped suddenly and he could not halt in time to avoid a collision.

Summitville Lighting Set

SUMMITVILLE — Mayor Ernest Phillips affixed his signature to a 10-year street lighting program when Council met Tuesday night, clearing the way for installation.

Work is due to begin about Oct. 1.

The ordinance provides for mercury vapor lighting on wooden poles. The cost of 7,000 lumen lights will be $3.83 per lamp per month and for 11,000 lumen lights $4.85, Phillips said.

A report was made on coal patching of village streets and a discussion was held on the possibility of installing a timing device on the tennis court lights so they cannot be used after 11 p. m.

Bills paid totaled $376. The next meeting will be Sept. 17.

'Quarantine' Hits Hancock

Agriculture Commissioner Gus Douglass at Charleston imposed a quarantine today on certain commodities from Hancock County and part of Wood County.

Douglass said he took the step because of the presence of the cereal leaf beetle, which he said posed a "serious agricultural" threat.

The quarantine was lowered on small grains such as barley, oats and wheat; ear corn; hay; grass and forage seeds; fodder and plant litter; sod, and used harvesting machinery.

Douglass said shippers could move these commodities up to 50 miles north, east or south of the quarantined areas only if they received a permit from the West Virginia Agriculture Department.

Boys Placed On Curfew In Pottery Theft

A Juvenile Court journal entry at Lisbon in the case of two 13-year-old East Liverpool boys who admitted a pottery burglary July 2 makes their parents subject to contempt proceedings if the boys do not abide by terms of probation.

The boys appeared before Judge Louis Tobin Tuesday and admitted entering the Kass China Co., 909 Vine St., and taking approximately $500 worth of ware. Nearly all the ware was recovered from a hiding place in Newell.

James L. Spurlock of 113 Harrison St., Newell, charged with contributing to the boys' delinquency, is scheduled for a hearing Sept. 26 in Juvenile Court.

Each boy was fined $50 and was ordered to pay the pottery $25 for damages. They were placed on a 5 p. m. curfew for the next four months and an 8 p. m. curfew until June 1, and were told to attend church and school regularly. They are not to go anywhere unless accompanied by one or both parents, nor associate with each other or anyone over 18 unless a member of the family.

Judge Tobin fined a 12-year-old East Liverpool boy $5 for stealing a bicycle July 15 in Wellsville. The judge placed him on a 9 p.m. curfew for three months and told him to stay out of Wellsville.

Firm's Founder Dies

ADAMSVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Owen Murphy, 60, founder and president of the Niagara Therapy Corp., manufacturers of massage equipment, died Sunday while vacationing in Ireland.

The first instance of Congress exercising its constitutional power to declare war was the declaration of war against Great Britain in 1812.

Two Cars Involved In Parking Accident

Wellsville police investigated an accident at the corner of 12th and Main at 3:50 p.m. Tuesday involving two autos — one leaving a parking area and the other preparing to park.

Charles Montgomery of 1705 Clark Ave., driving a 1965 sedan, told police he was parking and was struck by 1965 sedan operated by Mrs. Thelma L. Peterson of 325 Peterson Rd.

Mrs. Peterson told police she was backing, preparing to pull away from the area, when the Montgomery auto struck her auto. The right rear fenders of both cars were damaged.

Boys Placed On Curfew In Pottery Theft

A Juvenile Court journal entry at Lisbon in the case of two 13-year-old East Liverpool boys who admitted a pottery burglary July 2 makes their parents subject to contempt proceedings if the boys do not abide by terms of probation.

The boys appeared before Judge Louis Tobin Tuesday and admitted entering the Kass China Co., 909 Vine St., and taking approximately $500 worth of ware. Nearly all the ware was recovered from a hiding place in Newell.

James L. Spurlock of 113 Harrison St., Newell, charged with contributing to the boys' delinquency, is scheduled for a hearing Sept. 26 in Juvenile Court.

Each boy was fined $50 and was ordered to pay the pottery $25 for damages. They were placed on a 5 p. m. curfew for the next four months and an 8 p. m. curfew until June 1, and were told to attend church and school regularly. They are not to go anywhere unless accompanied by one or both parents, nor associate with each other or anyone over 18 unless a member of the family.

Judge Tobin fined a 12-year-old East Liverpool boy $5 for stealing a bicycle July 15 in Wellsville. The judge placed him on a 9 p.m. curfew for three months and told him to stay out of Wellsville.

Firm's Founder Dies

The first instance of Congress exercising its constitutional power to declare war was the declaration of war against Great Britain in 1812.

Two Cars Involved In Parking Accident

Wellsville police investigated an accident at the corner of 12th and Main at 3:50 p.m. Tuesday involving two autos — one leaving a parking area and the other preparing to park.

Charles Montgomery of 1705 Clark Ave., driving a 1965 sedan, told police he was parking and was struck by 1965 sedan operated by Mrs. Thelma L. Peterson of 325 Peterson Rd.

Mrs. Peterson told police she was backing, preparing to pull away from the area, when the Montgomery auto struck her auto. The right rear fenders of both cars were damaged.

Sen. Clark Set To Cast His Vote For McGovern

With Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey holding a sizable lead in delegate votes only hours before the balloting, Clark planned to cast his full vote for Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota.

The 162-member Pennsylvania delegation had 94¼ to its 130 votes committed for Humphrey and 19 for Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota. There were 14 uncommitted votes. President Johnson had one vote, and Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts had ¾.

Clark, a candidate for a third term in the Senate, announced his endorsement of McGovern at a news conference Tuesday. The Pennsylvania senator said his colleague was "eminently qualified" to be president and stood the best chance of defeating Republican nominee Richard M. Nixon in November.

Clark also said McGovern had held views identical to his own on the most important issues, including how to end the war in Vietnam. McGovern has called for an unconditional halt to the bombing of North Vietnam in an effort to break the stalemate of peace talks in Paris.

Clark said he had the "highest regard and respect" for Humphrey and McCarthy and pledged support to either one of them if nominated.

Meanwhile, other top leaders of the Democratic Party in Pennsylvania planned to give their votes to Humphrey.

The Humphrey backers included Mayor Joseph Barr of Pittsburgh, chairman of the delegation; Mayor James H. J. Tate of Philadelphia state Treasurer Thomas Z. Minehart, the chairman of the Democratic State Committee Former Gov. George M. Leader; State House Minority Leader Herbert Fineman, and State Senate Minority Leader Ernest P. Kline.

Milton Shapp, unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1966, favored McCarthy for the nomination, although he officially was uncommitted. He said,however, that he did not believe McCarthy could win the nomination.

Shapp said that if Sen. Edward Kennedy gave some indication he would accept the nomination, he could win with at least 60 votes coming out of Pennsylvania.

The Humphrey forces admitted privately that a Kennedy candidacy could whittle away from their strength, but expressed confidence that the Massachusetts Senator would "stand by his word" that he did not want his name placed before the convention.

Cycle Crash Hurts Woman

A young Beechwood woman was injured early Tuesday night when a motorcycle she was riding went off Anderson Blvd. near Park Way and then hit a post and a tree, hurling her 28 feet.

Nancy Baumgarner, 21, of 113 Center St. was taken to City Hospital by ambulance after the collision at 7:14 in the 1800 block of Anderson Blvd., officers said.

There was damage to the front end, handlebars and a mirror of the 1966 motorcycle, registered to Delmer Baumgarner of the same Center St. address.

The young woman told Patrolman David Huffman the motorcycle hit loose gravel on the blacktop pavement and she applied the brakes, but after that she does not remember what happened. The officer said the investigation showed the westbound motorcycle went off the street to the left on a long diagonal of 88 feet and then hit a fence post and a tree. The woman was thrown 28 feet through the air, landing on her back, he reported.

Meanwhile, an auto was damaged Tuesday night at 8:42 when it hit a utility pole at W. 8th and Division Sts., but the driver escaped injury, police reported.

Robert Murphy of Post Office Box 103 told officers he was driving west about 35 miles an hour when he swerved to avoid another vehicle and hit the Ohio Power Co. pole, damaging the right front of his 1960 sedan.

Cuyahoga's Deputies Get First Signed Pact

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cuyahoga County sheriff's deputies have secured the first signed contract for deputies in Ohio.

The agreement for 160 deputies was signed Tuesday by Sheriff James J. McGettrick and representatives of District Council 78, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes.

Council Director Robert A. Brindza said the contract, effective Jan. 1 provides for a 40-hour week instead of 48 hours, first year wage increase of $700 to $1,000 and double time for holidays. Previously deputies earned from $4,800 to $5,200 a year.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon says construction and delivery of new swing-wing F111A and FB111 jets will be stretched out to save $201 million this budget year toward the total $6 billion federal spending cut ordered by Congress.

The stretchout will not delay initial deliveries of the planes to the Air Force, the Pentagon said Tuesday, but "will result in an extended force build-up."

The F111A jet fighter-bomber is the Air Force version of the old TFX warplane sought by former Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara. It is designed primarily for tactical air strikes.

The FB111, another TFX offshoot, is intended for delivery of nuclear bombs on long-range missions and is to succeed many of the Strategic Air Command's B52s. The Pentagon said an additional $18 million is being saved this budget year by faster deactivation of seven F101 interceptor squadrons and the closing of Paine Field, Wash.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark has told Life magazine it misinterpreted his comments on divulging information obtained by wiretapping and says they did not refer to Rep. Cornelius Gallagher.

Clark also said in a letter publicly released Tuesday that if the Justice Department had been concerned with the New Jersey Democrat's conduct since 1960, as the magazine said, it would not have hesitated to investigate or prosecute if evidence warranted federal action.

James McKinnon, the custodian, said the intruder took a Polaroid camera, two pairs of pliers, four screw drivers, four putty knives, a wood chisel, a six-foot rule and a pair of side cutters. He said a closer check would be made later today to see if there was any other loss.

McKinnon dicovered the entry at 7:04 a. m. He said the intruder broke a pane of glass over 6 feet high and more than 2 feet wide in a front door. McKinnon said he checked the school at 5:45 a. m. and found it secure.

Youngstown Public Schools Will Face Teachers' 'Strike'

Industry Group Gets Literature

INDUSTRY — Literature on various phases of community improvement was distributed to members when the Mayor's Citizens Advisory Committee met Tuesday night at the Industry fire hall.

Mayor Steve Suchanec said the literature is that prepared for citizen committees by the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The group will make various recommendations to Council, including a request for enforcement of an ordinance against junk cars. Council also will be asked to contact the Pennsylvania Highway Department for repairs to a patch on Route 68 between the brick yard and the first curve toward Industry.

It was explained large trucks are creating a traffic hazard by swerving around the patch, which has hooved up.

The committee will ask council to install a light and paint corner curbs at Debbie Dr. and Route 68 to assist persons in locating the street after dark.

Also to be requested, is posting of a 10-ton limit sign on Paris Rd. This would allow school buses to use the road, but prohibit 24-ton trucks, which are causing damage, the committee reported.

The committee expressed its appreciation to Council for recent repairs to Hice Ave. and to Mayor Suchanec for notifying the highway department about cleaning berms on Pine Grove Rd.

Charles L. Finley presided. The next meeting will be Sept. 24 at 8 p. m.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I sharpen my pinking shears?

A.—Cut through a double strip of aluminum foil several times, and this will renew the edge on your blades.

Q.—How can I remove grease spots from clothing?

A.—Put a clean cloth under the stained area, then rub flour into the grease spot. Rub the spot with another cloth for a few minutes, and the stain should have vanished. This treatment is especially good for removing grease from boys' shirt collars.

Q.—How can I cut down on the dripping of candles?

A.—By keeping your candles in the refrigerator for a couple of days prior to using them, you'll not only minimize their dripping, but also increase their burning life.

Q.—Have you any suggestions for retaining the gloss of sateen?

A.—Try using borax water when washing sateen. My household - hints manual contains many other such helpful hints on laundering and cleaning.

Q.—How can I remedy the gripper snaps on children's clothing which have become weak and refuse to stay fastened

A.—These will usually work like new again if you'll take a pair of pliers and bend one or two of the prongs in the socket a little.

Youngstown Public Schools Will Face Teachers' 'Strike'

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Youngstown public schools face a teachers' "strike" next week, the day before classes start.

Seven hundred of those attending a meeting were delegates to the Ohio Education Association conference who took buses from Kent State University, where the conference was held, to Youngstown to support the local teachers.

Classes are not scheduled to start until Sept. 4 but schools open Sept. 3. The YEA has scheduled seminars Sept. 3 but has not said if these will continue once classes start.

An OEA spokesman indicated, However, that Youngstown teachers plan to force the school closings until the Youngstown Board of Education agrees to:

—Restore curriculum programs cut by the board in an austerity program.

— Grant salary increases sought by the teachers. Present starting salary is $5,800 and the teachers are asking for a starting salary of $6,600.

Industry Group Gets Literature

INDUSTRY — Literature on various phases of community improvement was distributed to members when the Mayor's Citizens Advisory Committee met Tuesday night at the Industry fire hall.

Mayor Steve Suchanec said the literature is that prepared for citizen committees by the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The group will make various recommendations to Council, including a request for enforcement of an ordinance against junk cars. Council also will be asked to contact the Pennsylvania Highway Department for repairs to a patch on Route 68 between the brick yard and the first curve toward Industry.

It was explained large trucks are creating a traffic hazard by swerving around the patch, which has hooved up.

The committee will ask council to install a light and paint corner curbs at Debbie Dr. and Route 68 to assist persons in locating the street after dark.

Also to be requested, is posting of a 10-ton limit sign on Paris Rd. This would allow school buses to use the road, but prohibit 24-ton trucks, which are causing damage, the committee reported.

The committee expressed its appreciation to Council for recent repairs to Hice Ave. and to Mayor Suchanec for notifying the highway department about cleaning berms on Pine Grove Rd.

Charles L. Finley presided. The next meeting will be Sept. 24 at 8 p. m.

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I sharpen my pinking shears?

A.—Cut through a double strip of aluminum foil several times, and this will renew the edge on your blades.

Q.—How can I remove grease spots from clothing?

A.—Put a clean cloth under the stained area, then rub flour into the grease spot. Rub the spot with another cloth for a few minutes, and the stain should have vanished. This treatment is especially good for removing grease from boys' shirt collars.

Q.—How can I cut down on the dripping of candles?

A.—By keeping your candles in the refrigerator for a couple of days prior to using them, you'll not only minimize their dripping, but also increase their burning life.

Q.—Have you any suggestions for retaining the gloss of sateen?

A.—Try using borax water when washing sateen. My household - hints manual contains many other such helpful hints on laundering and cleaning.

Q.—How can I remedy the gripper snaps on children's clothing which have become weak and refuse to stay fastened

A.—These will usually work like new again if you'll take a pair of pliers and bend one or two of the prongs in the socket a little.

Jury Due Case Thursday

Final Defense Arguments Continue In Barron Trial

CHARLESTON (AP) — Final defense arguments in the trial of former West Virginia Gov. W. W. Barron and four others were to continue today in U.S. District Court and it appeared the case would not go to the jury until Thursday.

Special Federal Judge J. Robert Martin said Tuesday he probably would not have the jury of seven women and five men begin deliberations at the end of an all-day session.

Today the jury was to hear four separate arguments on behalf of individual defendants. U.S. District Atty. Milton J. Ferguson then was to conclude the government's reply.

ATTORNEY Peter R. Taft, a grandson of President William Howard Taft, opened defense arguments Tuesday, contending the government had failed to prove its case against any of the five defendants and adding that the defendants "are wrapd in the presumption of innocence."

Taft's presentation followed the prosecuton's opening arguments by Alfred N. King of the Justice Department criminal division, who asked the jurors to show a "passion for honesty" in government by convicting the five men.

Indicted last Feb. 14 by a federal grand jury along with Barron were former State Road Commissioner Burl A. Sawyers, former Deputy Road Commisioner Burl A. Sawyers, former Deputy Road Commissioner Vincent J. Johnkoske, Elkins attorney Bonn Brown, Clarksburg auto dealer Alfred W. Schroath and former State Finance Commissioner Truman E. Gore.

GORE was removed from the current proceedings because of the illness of his attorney, but he remains under indictment.

The six were charged with conspiring to commit bribery in the award of state government contracts in West Virginia. The government contends the defendants shared equally in four out-of-state "receiving corporations" allegedly set up to receive payoffs from firms seeking to do business with the state.

Taft argued to the jury that "there is no evidence whatsoever of any bribes have been paid. . . if you have no bribes, you have no bribery proceeds which can be sent in interstate commerce."

Taft continued that if tnere were no illegal proceeds moving in interstate commerce, there was no federal violation or criminal intent and therefore there was no conspiracy.

King attempted to link, through the use of charts and a blackboard, payments to the four corporations with awards of state contracts to businesses which made the payments.

Taft said the corporations offered a useful and legal service by providing "someone who knows the people" to help firms wishing to do state business.

Theater Group Discusses Plays

Various plays were discussed for production during a meeting of the Ceramic Playrites Tuesday night in the former Woomer Building on St. Clair Ave.

James Graham, president, said that "The Odd Couple" and "The Man Who Came to Dinner" were among those suggested for future presentations. The group will send for scripts soon in preparation for selection, he added.

Reports were given by Rosemary Morris on proceeds of the play "Never Too Late" and by Dick Frankel on a theatrical workshop in the Youngstown area.

5 Are Jailed In Park Case

LISBON — Five men arrested for intoxication and disturbing the peace at Guilford Lake State Park were jailed in lieu of $25 fines and $5 costs Tuesday in Columbiana County Southwest Court.

They are Boyd Miller, Charlie D. Woolard and James Dougherty, all of Canton; Robert Rogers of East Canton, and Lewis Morrow of Alliance.

They have been in jail since their arrest at 6:40 p. m. last Thursday near Whinery's Landing. Judge J. L. MacDonald said the time in jail before their hearings cannot apply against paying off the fines and costs.

He fined four drivers yesterday:

William G. Dotson, Lisbon, unsafe vehicle, $25; Martin G. Kalmer, Youngstown, left of center, and Timothy Homan, Lisbon RD 1, parking on highway, $15 each, and Patricia S. Hoffmaster, Leetonia RD 1, speeding, $10.

Forfeiting appearance bonds were Hobart Keaton, Baltimore, Md., driving too fast for conditions, $25, and Hubert Graham, Royal Oak, Mich., passing traffic in hazardous zone, $20.

U.S. Hits Hanoi Comments About Election Drive

PARIS (AP) - The United States accused North Vietnam today of meddling in internal American affairs with comments on the presidential election campaign and demanded that Hanoi stop it.

Going into the 19th session of the Paris peace talks, U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman also called on the Hanoi government "to stop the carnage, stop the fighting and get on with the making of peace."

Harriman's statements to newsmen were made as delegates to the Democratic convention in Chicago were preparing to adopt their platform, including a controversial Vietnam peace plank.

North Vietnamese diplomats at the Paris conference for weeks have been aiming their declarations at American public opinion, clearly trying to rally it behind their demands for an unconditional halt in the bombing of North Vietnam.

WE STOCK BOTH

Recent news stories told how supermarkets and discount firms are telling manufacturers: "Sell us only your fast sellers. We are weeding out all others." Their reason is that the small amounts sold of slow sellers are not profitable.

This is true, but sometimes slow selling products can be very important to the persons who need them. There are hundreds of them in our pharmacy that sell only about a dozen of each a year. We buy only a quarter of a dozen at a time and re-order when they are sold. Our reputation is to have whatever you ask for. If we don't have your favorite, tell us.

Randolph To Announce Support For Humphrey

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. Jennings Randolph of West Virginia was expected to day to announce his support for Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey in his drive for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Randolph Tuesday placed Humphrey's strength in the West Virginia delegation between 28 and 30 votes. An Associated Press tabulation of the 38 delegates showed 25 votes for Humphrey, five for Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and eight still uncommitted.

RANDOLPH said Humphrey's chances of a first ballot victory were "reasonably good."

"I am certain in my own mind he has the support, and it will stay with him. Reports of wavering in his strength haven't been in evidence. It's been wishful thinking on the part of his opposition," Randolph said.

He added that McCarthy and Sen. George S. McGovern "have made effective campaigns but they haven't been able to dent the solid base on which Humphrey stands. They've been able to splinter it but not break it down."

Randolph said he was withholding his public announcement of a candidate choice until he had the opportunity to hear the three major contenders.

Humphrey, McCarthy and Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, speaking on behalf of McGovern, spoke to the West Virginians Tuesday.

HUMPHREY drew loud applause when he quipped to the delegates: "West Virginia made it possible for John Kennedy to become president and I think it's going to make it possible for me to become president."

In the 1960 West Virginia primary Kennedy defeated Humphrey and went on to become president.

"Our country bears tremendous responsibility and we need each other today as we never have before in our history," Humphrey said.

The vice president told the delegates he could "help bring this country together." He spoke of the "necessity" of electing a Democratic president to solve the nation's problems. He included the Vietnam war, urban crises, crime and poverty.

McCarthy spoke of the need to bring an immediate end to the Vietnam war and said, "I believe no matter how much we promise we will not be able to solve our problems at home unless at the same time we reduce our military efforts around the world."

The East Liverpool Civil Air Patrol Squadron 307C is preparing to move to its new headquarters in the City Street Department building at 1253 Pennsylvania Ave.

Plans for the move were discussed at a meeting Tuesday night at Bibbee's Little Roc Lake.

The group will meet again tonight to advance plans. Employes of the Parsons Coal Co. assisted the members in transferring furniture and equipment to the new site.

Bids On New Pen Due

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Bids will be opened Thursday for construction of the new state penitentiary, to be built at Lucasville in Scioto County.

5 Are Jailed In Park Case

LISBON — Five men arrested for intoxication and disturbing the peace at Guilford Lake State Park were jailed in lieu of $25 fines and $5 costs Tuesday in Columbiana County Southwest Court.

They are Boyd Miller, Charlie D. Woolard and James Dougherty, all of Canton; Robert Rogers of East Canton, and Lewis Morrow of Alliance.

They have been in jail since their arrest at 6:40 p. m. last Thursday near Whinery's Landing. Judge J. L. MacDonald said the time in jail before their hearings cannot apply against paying off the fines and costs.

He fined four drivers yesterday:

William G. Dotson, Lisbon, unsafe vehicle, $25; Martin G. Kalmer, Youngstown, left of center, and Timothy Homan, Lisbon RD 1, parking on highway, $15 each, and Patricia S. Hoffmaster, Leetonia RD 1, speeding, $10.

Forfeiting appearance bonds were Hobart Keaton, Baltimore, Md., driving too fast for conditions, $25, and Hubert Graham, Royal Oak, Mich., passing traffic in hazardous zone, $20.

Veteran Cincinnati Policeman Dies At 62

CINCINNATI (AP) — Lt. Col. Cuy York, a 40-year veteran of the Cincinnati Police Department, died at Cincinnati St. Francis Hospital Tuesday night after a long illness.

York, 62, spent his last 13 years as assistant police chief and superintendent of the traffic bureau.

U.S. Hits Hanoi Comments About Election Drive

PARIS (AP) - The United States accused North Vietnam today of meddling in internal American affairs with comments on the presidential election campaign and demanded that Hanoi stop it.

Going into the 19th session of the Paris peace talks, U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman also called on the Hanoi government "to stop the carnage, stop the fighting and get on with the making of peace."

Harriman's statements to newsmen were made as delegates to the Democratic convention in Chicago were preparing to adopt their platform, including a controversial Vietnam peace plank.

North Vietnamese diplomats at the Paris conference for weeks have been aiming their declarations at American public opinion, clearly trying to rally it behind their demands for an unconditional halt in the bombing of North Vietnam.

WE STOCK BOTH
FAST AND SLOW SELLERS

Recent news stories told how supermarkets and discount firms are telling manufacturers: "Sell us only your fast sellers. We are weeding out all others." Their reason is that the small amounts sold of slow sellers are not profitable.

This is true, but sometimes slow selling products can be very important to the persons who need them. There are hundreds of them in our pharmacy that sell only about a dozen of each a year. We buy only a quarter of a dozen at a time and re-order when they are sold. Our reputation is to have whatever you ask for. If we don't have your favorite, tell us.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

Giants Have New Willie Mays In Youngster Bonds

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Bonds reminds Willie Mays of a youngster named Willie Mays. The Chicago Cubs will tell you the resemblance is frightening.

Bonds, San Francisco's promising rookie outfielder, cracked a pair of homers and knocked in six runs Tuesday night as the surging Giants whipped the Cubs 8-4.

The 22-year-old speedster, recently singled out by teammate Mays as "the guy who could take my place," accounted for five runs with his fourth and fifth homers after delivering one with a bases-loaded ground out.

Bonds' slugging helped the second place Giants, who have won 14 of their last 17 starts, pick up a game on St. Louis' National League leaders, who were beaten 2-0 by the New York Mets. Cincinnati blasted Philadelphia 10-0, Pittsburgh nipped Atlanta 4-3 in 11 innings and Houston beat Los Angeles 4-2 in other NL games.

Bonds, who set a modern major league record by hitting a grand slam homer in his first game three months ago, gave right-hander Bob Bolin a 1-0 lead in the second inning with his bases-loaded grounder. He greeted Chicago reliever Jack Lamabe with a 400-foot homer, good for three RBI, in the fourth and connected off Bill Stoneman with one on in the sixth.

He is batting .257, with 21 RBI, in 49 games with the Giants.

Jim Hart's two-run single in the sixth capped the Giants' attack, enabling Bolin to breeze to his seventh victory in 11 decisions. Willie Smith, who made his first pitching appearance for the Cubs as a late-inning reliever, tagged Bolin for a two-run homer in the ninth.

Dick Selma scattered six hits to break a personal five-game losing streak and Tommie Agee drove in three runs with a homer and single as the Mets shut out the Cards for the second successive night.

Agee's fifth homer, a leadoff shot in the third inning, gave Selma all the support he needed and pinned the loss on Larry Jaster, 8-11, who has dropped six in a row.

Tony Cloninger blanked the Phillies on four hits, struck out 11 and clubbed a three-run double in the Reds' six-run fourth. It was the Reds' ninth straight victory over Philadelphia and the third for Cloninger, who is 5-6 over-all with Atlanta and Cincinnati.

Fred Whitfield hit a two-run homer, Tommy Helms contributed a two-run double and Pete Rose extended his hitting streak to 17 games with a fourth inning single.

Donn Clendenon reached first on a third-strike wild pitch to open the 11th at Atlanta. He took second on a sacrifice bunt and scored the winning run on Jerry May's two-out single. Mike Lum's eighth inning homer off Jim Bunning had lifted the Braves into a 3-3 tie.

Norm Miller's homer touched off a four-run third inning burst that carried the Astros past Los Angeles behind the six-hit pitching of Denny Lemaster. Run-scoring singles by Jim Wynn and Rusty Staub and a sacrifice fly by Denis Menke completed the deciding rally.

Orioles Win Pair, Within 4 Of Tigers

★ ★ ★ Rookie's 1st HR Decides Opener ★ ★ ★

But those guys who pinch hit for another pinch hitter and slam a game winning home run in the last of the ninth—that's a pinch hitter's pinch hitter. That's Merv Rettenmund.

The rookie outfielder, who has made most of his infrequent appearances for the Baltimore Orioles by coming off the bench, won the label Tuesday night.

Rettenmund, recently recalled from the minor leagues, slammed his first major league homer with one on and one out and lifted the Orioles to a 5-3 victory over Oakland in the opener of a twi-night doubleheader.

When the Orioles won the nightcap 7-2 and Detroit lost to the Chicago White Sox 2-1, Baltimore found itself only four games behind the American League leading Tigers.

The Orioles haven't been that close to the lead since June 10 when Detroit led Cleveland by only three games.

Off in the distance Boston stomped Cleveland 7-1 and the New York Yankees stopped California 2-0 before losing 2-0 in afternoon contests. At night, Minnesota blasted Washington 7-1 after losing 2-0 in a twi-nighter.

Curt Blefary had given the Orioles a 3-0 lead with his 11th homer in the fourth inning, but the Orioles found themselves deadlocked 3-3 after Reggie Jackson, Rick Monday and Sal Bando unloaded solo homers in the seventh for the A's.

Blefary singled with one out in the ninth off losing right-hander Jack Aker, 3-3, and when left-handed Elrod Hendricks was sent up to pinch hit for Larry Haney, Oakland switched to left-hander Warren Bogle.

The 25-year-old right-handed hitter, making his ninth appearance at the plate this season, responded by belting the first pitch over the left field fence. He now has a single, two doubles and a homer for a .444 batting average.

Wally Bunker, another recall from the minors this year, took care of the nightcap with a six-hitter in his first start since Aug. 7. He is 2-0.

Blefary and Don Buford, No. 13, supplied the home run power in the nightcap, both connecting Aker in the fifth inning, and Dave Johnson stole home during a three-run fourth inning rally as the Orioles won their 17th game in 24 outings.

Buddy Bradford, who opened the ninth with a walk and was sacrificed to second, scored the winning run for Chicago when Matchick knocked down Luis Aparicio's hit behind second and threw low to first.

The teams had traded fifth inning runs as Norm Cash blasted his 20th homer for the Tigers and Tommy Davis stroked a run-scoring single for the Sox.

Wilbur Wood, 10-9, who worked out of a bases loaded, none out jam in the ninth, got the victory.

Bruce Look's three-run double gave Minnesota its first runs in 26 innings in the nightcap behind Jim Roland's first complete game since 1963, a five-hitter.

But the Senators grabbed the opener when Mike Epstein's leadoff single in the eighth ruined Dean Chance's bid for a no-hitter, and Bernie Allen followed with his fifth homer. Camilo Pascual, 12-8, allowed only four hits for the triumph.

Rookies Bill Harrelson, 5 2-3 innings, and Andy Messersmith stopped the Yankees on one hit—Joe Pepitone's bloop hit in the sixth—in California's victory after Stan Bahnsen, seven innings, and Steve Hamilton combined on a six-hitter for New York in the opener.

Ray Culp, 10-5, turned in a four-hitter for Boston's triumph, and Reggie Smith squeezed home one run and Floyd Robinson singled in two in a four-run third inning.

Nance Can't Do It All, Patriots Learned In '67

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

ANDOVER, Mass. (AP) — Although the Boston Patriots have been saying for two years they need a running back to take some pressure off Jim Nance, Coach Mike Holovak is not operating under any illusions.

"Nance has to have the ball," Holovak said. "What the heck. Who's kidding who? You have a good ballplayer, use him. Why save him?"

Save him the Patriots haven't. Nance ran the ball an American Football League record 299 times in 1966 and 269 times last year. And in those seasons he became the first player to lead the league in rushing in consecutive years.

But the Patriots can't depend solely on Nance. For running, yes. But for their whole offense, no.

They learned that last year when they finished last in the Eastern Division with a 3-10-1 record, worst in their history. Of course, the defense had a lot to do with Boston's demise, too.

"It was just a year that everything went topsy turvy," Holovak explained. "Early in the year we were a good club. But we lost some toughies and then we went downhill."

It promises to be a long struggle back.

To start the climb, Holovak has made two moves—he traded quarterbacks and he has inserted some more rookies into the line-up.

The trade sent 38-year-old Babe Parilli, a player of whom Holovak is very fond, to the New York Jets for 27-year-old Mike Taliaferro, a player who was not very fond of the Jets.

Taliaferro, pronounced Toliver, is in his fifth year in the AFL, but for the past three he sat on the bench and watched Joe Namath play. Now it's his turn to play while another quarterback, in this case, Don Trull, sits and watches.

Although Taliaferro is no baby, he fits in with Holovak's youth movement. Also in the backfield will be rookie flanker Aaron Marsh from Eastern Kentucky and rookie halfback R.C. Gamble from South Carolina State.

Gamble probably will share running duties with 253-year-old Gene Thomas, acquired from Kansas City. Larry Garron, the man who was supposed to take some pressure off Nance last year, was switched to flanker, but both he and veteran Gino Cappelletti are playing behind Marsh.

The defense has a youthful look, too.

Dennis Byrd, rookie from North Carolina State, has replaced Bob Dee at end. Dee retired after playing in every one of the league's 112 games, but his three linemates, who also have played in quite a few games, are back. They are end Larry Eisenhauer and tackles Houston Antwine and Jim Hunt.

Of the starting linebackers, Nick Buoniconti is the only one who's been around very long. Doug Satcher is in his third year, and Ed Philpott his second.

The defensive backfield is the youngest in the league. The Patriots used two rookies, John Charles and Leroy Mitchell, at cornerback last year, and now they've added another.

Willie Porter, a teammate of Mitchell's at Texas Southern, will team with Leroy at the corners, while Charles moves to safety. The other safety is Don Webb, a comparatively old man at 28.

Alcindor Passed Olympics But Now Helps Youths

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — Lew Alcindor, who could now be getting ready to lead the U.S. basketball team in the Olympics, is working instead with the underprivileged youngsters of New York.

"I don't know of anything I've done yet that's been more rewarding," he says. "We know what we've done has worked. It's been that good. It's wonderful."

This is the same man who not long ago said of his decision not to try out for the Olympic basketball team:

"We have a racist nation and my decision not to go for the Olympics is my way of getting the message across."

Alcindor, the 7-foot plus center of UCLA's collegiate champions and already considered one of the greatest of modern basketball players, was a cinch to make the Olympic team.

He is now part of Operation Sports Rescue along with other famous athletes. Teams each headed by an athlete talk to youngsters in small groups.

"Young people idolize athletes," says LeRoy Wilkins, director of the project. "If you can get athletes to say the same thing that religious leaders and educators are saying, they'll listen."

The objectives of Operation Sports Rescue are to instill self-pride in youngsters of the street, to impress on them the value of remaining in school, to underscore the value of independence by acquiring marketable skills, and to encourage youngsters to take an active part in community affairs.

Among the athletes working on the project in addition to Alcindor are Emmette Bryant of the Boston Celtics, Ron Blye of the New York Giants, Tom Hoover of the Houston Mavericks, Bobby Hunter of the Harlem Globetrotters, Carlos Ortiz and Jose Torres, the boxers, Oscar Robertson of the Cincinnati Royals, and Walt Bellamy of the New York Knicks.

"Alcindor has worked almost as much as all the rest put together," said one of the project officials.

Operation Sports Rescue is sponsored by the Mayor's Urban Action Task Force and financed by the Bristol-Myers Co.

Lombardi Turns To Movies

2 Veterans Who Were Cut Now Given Second Chance

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Vince Lombardi has become a movie star in a film called Second Effort but Jim Harris and Claude Crabb are starring in a real-life drama entitled Second Chance.

While Lombardi was giving tips on salesmanship in his new venture, tackle Harris and defensive back Crabb were going through reruns with the pro football teams that recently sent them packing.

Harris, who was released on waivers by the New York Jets on Monday, was recalled by the American Football League club Tuesday when nobody claimed him.

A three-year starter at defensive tackle, Harris was switched to offense in training camp but lost out to rookie Sam Walton. The Jets said he will return to defense as backup man for John Elliott.

The Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League dropped Crabb last week but invited him back because Chuck Lamson must undergo surgery on an injured knee.

Meanwhile, Lombardi was out to prove that movies are better than ever, the same plateau to which he coached the Green Bay Packers before stepping down after last season to concentrate on his duties as general manager.

The movie, previewed Tuesday in Green Bay before an audience of executives from 86 Midwestern companies, involves a salesman in need of a victory who turns to Lombardi for advice.

The salesman is played by an actor. Lombardi is cast as Lombardi, a role in which he became sterotyped during nine seasons as Packer field boss.

"He was very convincing," said Lee Remmel, a Green Bay sports writer turned critic for the occasion.

Jerry Kramer, a guard for the Packers, has a role in the film and gets off one of the better lines. The salesman asks Kramer about Lombardi and Kramer replies:

"He doesn't have ulcers, but he's a carrier."

Kramer is the leading candidate for the job vacated by the retirement of Don Chandler. Fullback Chuck Mercein and defensive end Frank Winkler are other possibilities.

Elsewhere, Philadelphia, hard hit by injuries, acquired fullback Larry Conjar, a former Notre Dame star, from Cleveland for an undisclosed 1969 draft choice. The Browns in turn picked up veteran center Bob Whitlow on waivers from Pittsburgh.

Washington's plans to try Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban at halfback in Thursday night's exhibition against Detroit were shelved when the former UCLA quarterback pulled a hamstring muscle in practice. He probably won't play at all.

Giants Have New Willie Mays In Youngster Bonds

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Bonds reminds Willie Mays of a youngster named Willie Mays. The Chicago Cubs will tell you the resemblance is frightening.

Bonds, San Francisco's promising rookie outfielder, cracked a pair of homers and knocked in six runs Tuesday night as the surging Giants whipped the Cubs 8-4.

The 22-year-old speedster, recently singled out by teammate Mays as "the guy who could take my place," accounted for five runs with his fourth and fifth homers after delivering one with a bases-loaded ground out.

Bonds' slugging helped the second place Giants, who have won 14 of their last 17 starts, pick up a game on St. Louis' National League leaders, who were beaten 2-0 by the New York Mets. Cincinnati blasted Philadelphia 10-0, Pittsburgh nipped Atlanta 4-3 in 11 innings and Houston beat Los Angeles 4-2 in other NL games.

Bonds, who set a modern major league record by hitting a grand slam homer in his first game three months ago, gave right-hander Bob Bolin a 1-0 lead in the second inning with his bases-loaded grounder. He greeted Chicago reliever Jack Lamabe with a 400-foot homer, good for three RBI, in the fourth and connected off Bill Stoneman with one on in the sixth.

He is batting .257, with 21 RBI, in 49 games with the Giants.

Jim Hart's two-run single in the sixth capped the Giants' attack, enabling Bolin to breeze to his seventh victory in 11 decisions. Willie Smith, who made his first pitching appearance for the Cubs as a late-inning reliever, tagged Bolin for a two-run homer in the ninth.

Dick Selma scattered six hits to break a personal five-game losing streak and Tommie Agee drove in three runs with a homer and single as the Mets shut out the Cards for the second successive night.

Agee's fifth homer, a leadoff shot in the third inning, gave Selma all the support he needed and pinned the loss on Larry Jaster, 8-11, who has dropped six in a row.

Tony Cloninger blanked the Phillies on four hits, struck out 11 and clubbed a three-run double in the Reds' six-run fourth. It was the Reds' ninth straight victory over Philadelphia and the third for Cloninger, who is 5-6 over-all with Atlanta and Cincinnati.

Fred Whitfield hit a two-run homer, Tommy Helms contributed a two-run double and Pete Rose extended his hitting streak to 17 games with a fourth inning single.

Donn Clendenon reached first on a third-strike wild pitch to open the 11th at Atlanta. He took second on a sacrifice bunt and scored the winning run on Jerry May's two-out single. Mike Lum's eighth inning homer off Jim Bunning had lifted the Braves into a 3-3 tie.

Norm Miller's homer touched off a four-run third inning burst that carried the Astros past Los Angeles behind the six-hit pitching of Denny Lemaster. Run-scoring singles by Jim Wynn and Rusty Staub and a sacrifice fly by Denis Menke completed the deciding rally.

Alcindor Passed Olympics But Now Helps Youths

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — Lew Alcindor, who could now be getting ready to lead the U.S. basketball team in the Olympics, is working instead with the underprivileged youngsters of New York.

"I don't know of anything I've done yet that's been more rewarding," he says. "We know what we've done has worked. It's been that good. It's wonderful."

This is the same man who not long ago said of his decision not to try out for the Olympic basketball team:

"We have a racist nation and my decision not to go for the Olympics is my way of getting the message across."

Alcindor, the 7-foot plus center of UCLA's collegiate champions and already considered one of the greatest of modern basketball players, was a cinch to make the Olympic team.

He is now part of Operation Sports Rescue along with other famous athletes. Teams each headed by an athlete talk to youngsters in small groups.

"Young people idolize athletes," says LeRoy Wilkins, director of the project. "If you can get athletes to say the same thing that religious leaders and educators are saying, they'll listen."

The objectives of Operation Sports Rescue are to instill self-pride in youngsters of the street, to impress on them the value of remaining in school, to underscore the value of independence by acquiring marketable skills, and to encourage youngsters to take an active part in community affairs.

Among the athletes working on the project in addition to Alcindor are Emmette Bryant of the Boston Celtics, Ron Blye of the New York Giants, Tom Hoover of the Houston Mavericks, Bobby Hunter of the Harlem Globetrotters, Carlos Ortiz and Jose Torres, the boxers, Oscar Robertson of the Cincinnati Royals, and Walt Bellamy of the New York Knicks.

"Alcindor has worked almost as much as all the rest put together," said one of the project officials.

Injuries Follow Bills, Kemp Lost For Season

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP) — After hearing about the Buffalo Bills' latest physical mishaps, a well-wisher said to Coach Joe Collier, "Good luck."

"We don't need any luck," snapped Collier.

The Bills, however, could use some anti-injury spray.

The need for such a preventitive is apparent once again this year. The latest calamity struck the Bills Monday when quarterback Jack Kemp tore ligaments in his right knee and rookie halfback Gary McDermott suffered a posible dislocated elbow.

Kemp, injured during a scrimmage when defensive end Ron McDole fell on him, is lost for the season while McDermott is expected to miss at least six weeks.

Collier, though, remains undaunted, at least publicly.

"We haven't folded our tent," he said Monday. "We're just as optimistic as before."

The Bills were so optimistic, in fact, they felt they had a good chance of winning the American Football League's Eastern Division title-if they could escape the rash of injuries that decimated them last year.

But this year's siege didn't begin much later than last season's. In 1967 star guard Billy Shaw tore ligaments in his right knee and missed much of the season.

This year halfback Keith Lincoln cracked some ribs on the Bills' first offensive play in their first exhibition game. Two plays later fullback Wray Carlton hurt a knee. Before the end of the quarter flanker Elbert Dubenion and cornerback Booker Edgerson also were injured.

Then in the second game guard Joe O'Donnell tore ligaments in his right knee. He could miss the entire season.

As far as Collier is concerned, only the mishaps to Kemp and O'Donnell are serious. At the same time, he feels he has sufficient replacements.

"We've always felt Flores is a top quarterback, and we feel Dan Darragh is a top rookie quarterback," Collier said.

Collier, however, also admitted Flores has been handicapped by a lack of work so far because of a sore shoulder.

"But we have two weeks before the opener, and that should be enough time for Tom to get in the work he needs," Collier added.

Flores, 30, started 1967 as the No. 1 quarterback, but a knee injury and an eye problem dumped him behind Kemp. He threw only 64 passes all season, completing 22 for a poor 34 per cent mark.

Darragh, from William and Mary, has impressed the Bills' coaches but isn't likely to see too much action unless Flores flaters badly.

Althouth McDermott has been Buffalo's top all-around back in exhibition games, his loss will not be as great as Kemp's because the Bills are deep in running backs, a condition that didn't exist last season.

Besides the veterans Lincoln and Carlton, Collier has rookies Ben Gregory from Nebraska and Max Anderson from Arizona State who have looked good.

The Bills are also deep in wide receivers with Dubenion, Monte Ledbetter, Ed Rutkowski rookie Haven Moses from San Diego State, rookie Dick Trapp from Florida and Bobby Crockett. The tight ends are Paul Costa and Charley Ferguson.

Joining Cunningham in the interior offensive line are center Al Bemiller, Shaw and tackles Stew Barber and Dick Hudson.

Defensively, the Bills are intact and rough. The only questionable spot is at one of the ends where Dudley Meredith and Howard Kindig are fighting it out. The other end is McDole, and the tackles are Tom Sestak and Jim Dunaway.

High Altitude Workouts Affecting U.S. Runners

By WILLIAM C. HARRISON
AP Science Writer

It took 10 stitches to close the gash opened when he blacked out and pitched to the floor of the training room after a first-day workout Aug. 12.

Rogers, 27, also broke a molar that had to be replaced by a bridge.

"I thought I was taking it easy compared to workouts at lower levels," said the Grand Street Boys Club (New York) athlete, a member of last year's Pan-American team.

Rogers' easy workout included a two-mile run, three 220s of around 25 seconds, 10 or 15 minutes over the hurdles, and jogging another mile.

"I feel wonderful now," Rogers says. But he's taking it slower on the workouts.

"That first day bad luck frightened me a little but also gave me more will power to train."

Rogers feels it probably was a combination of travel fatigue, oxygen lack and dehydration that felled him.

"The humidity is unusually very low here," says Dr. William P. Plummer. "The boys sweat heavily but don't realize it." He prescribes salt tablets and lots of liquids.

Army Cpl. Tom Farrell, who clipped one-half second off the American 600-meter record in an intrasquad meet July 27, says the altitude hasn't bothered him.

"I took it easy the first two days—just jogged—then I went into my normal workouts," Farrell says. His experience is typical of many of the 200-plus athletes at the camp.

But another Army man, sprinter Jim Kemp, required hospitalization after running the 400 meters Aug. 17.

"I felt great during the race, but afterward—oh, man! chest pain, dizziness, nausea," says Kemp, who had been in camp a month. "I felt like I'd been hit on the side of the head with a baseball bat."

Sickle cell disease occurs almost exclusively in the Negro race. It pulls the red blood cells into a characteristic sickle shape and reduces their ability to ferry oxygen to body tissues. High altitude, where oxygen pressure is lower, increases the sickling tendency.

Lee Evans of San Jose State ran the 400 meters in 44.9 seconds that day, equaling the Olympic record, but needed oxygen administered after the race.

"Funny thing, it doesn't hit you till after the race," Evans says. "I had chest pains—my lungs were really burning. But after five minutes of oxygen I was all right."

Akron Golfer Has 6-Stroke Lead In Open

FAIRBORN, OHIO (AP) — Frank Wharton had a six-stroke lead going into today's final two rounds of the Ohio Open Golf Tournament.

Wharton recalled Tuesday that he was eight strokes behind going into the final 36 holes last year. He picked up seven shots to finish second and nearly overtook winner Frank Boynton of Cleveland.

Wharton shot a sizzling four-under-par 68 Tuesday to match his 69 Monday for a halfway score of 137 on the Greene Country Club course.

Tied at 143 were John Dalrymple of Sylvania and Larry Liprando of Cleveland.

George Belino of Youngstown, coleader with Wharton Monday, blew up in the second round and shot a 75 to drop him to fourth at 144.

Herman Keiser Sr. of Copley, who won the Masters in 1746 and is a former Ohio Open champ, had a 145 after 36 holes and won the senior tournament being held in conjunction with the Open. His 145 also placed him fifth among the open leaders.

The field of 116 was cut to the low 60 professionals and low 12 amateurs following Tuesday's play.

Leading the amateurs was Chuck Smith of Worthington with 147, followed by Andy Augaitus of Dayton with 150.

Others among the leaders included Bob Littler Jr. of Athens, Tom Cassidy of Groveport, Mike Podolski of Troy and Jim Yingling of Newark, all at 146; and Phil Stockdale of Granville, John Dewey of Fremont and Charles Smith of Elyria, all at 152.

First Racing Application Made By Harrisburg Group

HARRISBURG (AP) — A racing plant accommodating nearly 20,000 patrons — most of them standees — was envisioned Tuesday in the first application submitted for a flat racing license to the State Horse Racing Commission.

The Harrisburg - based Pennsylvania National Turf Club said it proposes to build a one-mile thoroughbred track in East Hanover Township, east of Harrisburg in Dauphin County.

It said the plant could seat 8,017 spectators and would have standing room for another 11,893. It would be built on a 614 acre site and would ultimately have parking space for 11,000 cars, the application said.

The application listed these officers: John J. Shumaker, Harrisburg, president; E. D. First J. Harrisburg, vice president and secretary; Robert Hirschman, York, and Emanuel Murry, Lancaster, both vice presidents; and Jack Gross, Harrisburg, treasurer.

Injuries Follow Bills, Kemp Lost For Season

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP) — After hearing about the Buffalo Bills' latest physical mishaps, a well-wisher said to Coach Joe Collier, "Good luck."

"We don't need any luck," snapped Collier.

The Bills, however, could use some anti-injury spray.

The need for such a preventitive is apparent once again this year. The latest calamity struck the Bills Monday when quarterback Jack Kemp tore ligaments in his right knee and rookie halfback Gary McDermott suffered a posible dislocated elbow.

Kemp, injured during a scrimmage when defensive end Ron McDole fell on him, is lost for the season while McDermott is expected to miss at least six weeks.

Collier, though, remains undaunted, at least publicly.

"We haven't folded our tent," he said Monday. "We're just as optimistic as before."

The Bills were so optimistic, in fact, they felt they had a good chance of winning the American Football League's Eastern Division title-if they could escape the rash of injuries that decimated them last year.

But this year's siege didn't begin much later than last season's. In 1967 star guard Billy Shaw tore ligaments in his right knee and missed much of the season.

This year halfback Keith Lincoln cracked some ribs on the Bills' first offensive play in their first exhibition game. Two plays later fullback Wray Carlton hurt a knee. Before the end of the quarter flanker Elbert Dubenion and cornerback Booker Edgerson also were injured.

Then in the second game guard Joe O'Donnell tore ligaments in his right knee. He could miss the entire season.

As far as Collier is concerned, only the mishaps to Kemp and O'Donnell are serious. At the same time, he feels he has sufficient replacements.

"We've always felt Flores is a top quarterback, and we feel Dan Darragh is a top rookie quarterback," Collier said.

Collier, however, also admitted Flores has been handicapped by a lack of work so far because of a sore shoulder.

"But we have two weeks before the opener, and that should be enough time for Tom to get in the work he needs," Collier added.

Flores, 30, started 1967 as the No. 1 quarterback, but a knee injury and an eye problem dumped him behind Kemp. He threw only 64 passes all season, completing 22 for a poor 34 per cent mark.

Darragh, from William and Mary, has impressed the Bills' coaches but isn't likely to see too much action unless Flores flaters badly.

Althouth McDermott has been Buffalo's top all-around back in exhibition games, his loss will not be as great as Kemp's because the Bills are deep in running backs, a condition that didn't exist last season.

Besides the veterans Lincoln and Carlton, Collier has rookies Ben Gregory from Nebraska and Max Anderson from Arizona State who have looked good.

The Bills are also deep in wide receivers with Dubenion, Monte Ledbetter, Ed Rutkowski rookie Haven Moses from San Diego State, rookie Dick Trapp from Florida and Bobby Crockett. The tight ends are Paul Costa and Charley Ferguson.

Joining Cunningham in the interior offensive line are center Al Bemiller, Shaw and tackles Stew Barber and Dick Hudson.

Defensively, the Bills are intact and rough. The only questionable spot is at one of the ends where Dudley Meredith and Howard Kindig are fighting it out. The other end is McDole, and the tackles are Tom Sestak and Jim Dunaway.

High Altitude Workouts Affecting U.S. Runners

By WILLIAM C. HARRISON
AP Science Writer

It took 10 stitches to close the gash opened when he blacked out and pitched to the floor of the training room after a first-day workout Aug. 12.

Rogers, 27, also broke a molar that had to be replaced by a bridge.

"I thought I was taking it easy compared to workouts at lower levels," said the Grand Street Boys Club (New York) athlete, a member of last year's Pan-American team.

Rogers' easy workout included a two-mile run, three 220s of around 25 seconds, 10 or 15 minutes over the hurdles, and jogging another mile.

"I feel wonderful now," Rogers says. But he's taking it slower on the workouts.

"That first day bad luck frightened me a little but also gave me more will power to train."

Rogers feels it probably was a combination of travel fatigue, oxygen lack and dehydration that felled him.

"The humidity is unusually very low here," says Dr. William P. Plummer. "The boys sweat heavily but don't realize it." He prescribes salt tablets and lots of liquids.

Army Cpl. Tom Farrell, who clipped one-half second off the American 600-meter record in an intrasquad meet July 27, says the altitude hasn't bothered him.

"I took it easy the first two days—just jogged—then I went into my normal workouts," Farrell says. His experience is typical of many of the 200-plus athletes at the camp.

But another Army man, sprinter Jim Kemp, required hospitalization after running the 400 meters Aug. 17.

"I felt great during the race, but afterward—oh, man! chest pain, dizziness, nausea, " says Kemp, who had been in camp a month. "I felt like I'd been hit on the side of the head with a baseball bat."

Sickle cell disease occurs almost exclusively in the Negro race. It pulls the red blood cells into a characteristic sickle shape and reduces their ability to ferry oxygen to body tissues. High altitude, where oxygen pressure is lower, increases the sickling tendency.

Lee Evans of San Jose State ran the 400 meters in 44.9 seconds that day, equaling the Olympic record, but needed oxygen administered after the race.

"Funny thing, it doesn't hit you till after the race," Evans says. "I had chest pains—my lungs were really burning. But after five minutes of oxygen I was all right."

Akron Golfer Has 6-Stroke Lead In Open

FAIRBORN, OHIO (AP) — Frank Wharton had a six-stroke lead going into today's final two rounds of the Ohio Open Golf Tournament.

Wharton recalled Tuesday that he was eight strokes behind going into the final 36 holes last year. He picked up seven shots to finish second and nearly overtook winner Frank Boynton of Cleveland.

Wharton shot a sizzling four-under-par 68 Tuesday to match his 69 Monday for a halfway score of 137 on the Greene Country Club course.

George Belino of Youngstown, coleader with Wharton Monday, blew up in the second round and shot a 75 to drop him to fourth at 144.

Herman Keiser Sr. of Copley, who won the Masters in 1746 and is a former Ohio Open champ, had a 145 after 36 holes and won the senior tournament being held in conjunction with the Open. His 145 also placed him fifth among the open leaders.

The field of 116 was cut to the low 60 professionals and low 12 amateurs following Tuesday's play.

Leading the amateurs was Chuck Smith of Worthington with 147, followed by Andy Augaitus of Dayton with 150.

Others among the leaders included Bob Littler Jr. of Athens, Tom Cassidy of Groveport, Mike Podolski of Troy and Jim Yingling of Newark, all at 146; and Phil Stockdale of Granville, John Dewey of Fremont and Charles Smith of Elyria, all at 152.

First Racing Application Made By Harrisburg Group

HARRISBURG (AP) — A racing plant accommodating nearly 20,000 patrons — most of them standees — was envisioned Tuesday in the first application for a flat racing license submitted to the State Horse Racing Commission.

The Harrisburg - based Pennsylvania National Turf Club said it proposes to build a one-mile thoroughbred track in East Hanover Township, east of Harrisburg in Dauphin County.

It said the plant could seat 8,017 spectators and would have standing room for another 11,893. It would be built on a 614 acre site and would ultimately have parking space for 11,000 cars, the application said.

The application listed these officers: John J. Shumaker, Harrisburg, president; E. D. First J. Harrisburg, vice president and secretary; Robert Hirschman, York, and Emanuel Murry, Lancaster, both vice presidents; and Jack Gross, Harrisburg, treasurer.

Alabama, N. C. Challenges Rejected

Compromise On Georgia Delegate Seating Adopted

CHICAGO (AP) — The Democratic National Convention has wrapped up two days of hectic and often bitter floor fights over credentials by ratifying a Georgia seating compromise which triggered a walkout by about a third of that state's delegations.

The convention also dealt Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's forces twin setbacks by rejecting McCarthy-backed attempts to unseat regular delegations from Alabama and North Carolina.

And before a sudden adjournment early today, the convention approved creation of a special subcommittee to propose reforms in delegate selection procedures—and thus find ways to avert credentials disputes like the ones that troubled this year's convention.

The Georgia compromise, supported by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, was adopted on a voice vote. It seated all members of the regular delegation and a slate headed by Negro State Rep. Julian Bond, splitting the state's votes evenly between the two groups by giving each delegate a fractional vote.

But about 20 of the 64 regulars refused to sit alongside Bond's slate. They pushed their way off the convention floor, with one saying "we're going home."

A short time later, Gov. Lester Maddox said he had called upon State Democratic Chairman James Gray, his staff and the Georgia regulars "to vacate their places in the assembly."

Maddox, who with Gray had selected the regular delegates, resigned from the Georgia delegation a day earlier. But he said he still is a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Georgia cast separate votes on later roll calls—one by the Bond slate and the other by the remaining regulars.

The Alabama challenge was pressed by a group led by Huntsville dentist John Cashin Jr., who contended the state's regulars were a tool in former Alabama Gov. George Wallace's third party presidential bid.

Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey, Credentials Committee chairman, said Alabama's regulars had been required to sign a pledge not to support the nominee of another party. "Nobody would be happier if this certified delegation were unseated, than a man named George Wallace," he said.

The convention then turned down the Alabama challenge on a 1,607 to 881½ roll call vote.

A lopsided voice vote disposed of the North Carolina challenge. It had been brought by a group headed by Reginald Hawkins, unsuccessful candidate for governor this year. Hawkins' group sought to add 10½ votes to the 3½ votes held by Negroes in North Carolina's 59-vote delegation.

Also ratified on voice votes were the credentials committee's rejection of challenges involving Louisiana, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Michigan and Indiana delegations.

First-Ballot Protest Vote

Black Delegates Pushing 'Favorite Son' Candidate

However, leaders conceded the protest is unlikely to create any major dent in the drive by frontrunner Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey for the party's nomination.

The movement to deny black support to the three leading contenders and cast the Negro votes instead for the Rev. Channing Phillips, a minister from the nation's capital, stemmed from resentment at the refusal of the convention to unseat two Deep South delegations.

Negro Congressman John Conyers Jr. of Detroit, who will make a seconding speech for Phillips, announced the move at a news conference Tuesday night and said he was disappointed in the convention because "issue after issue has been subverted to the cause of conservatism."

But fellow Negro Rep. Charles C. Diggs Jr. of Michigan said he still supports Humphrey and predicted the movement would have no significant effect on the convention.

Diggs said, "I don't consider this or any other favorite son a serious candidate."

Phillips, 44, led a coalition slate backing Sens. Robert F. Kennedy and Eugene J. McCarthy that overturned regular party forces in the Democratic primary in the District of Columbia in May. He became the favorite son candidate of his 23-vote delegation after Kennedy's assassination.

With many Negro delegates leaning toward McCarthy or Sen. George S McGovern, the protest vote appeared more likely to trim support from them than from Humphrey.

Phillips said, "We haven't given any thought to where the votes will be withheld."

He said the protest was being mounted because "the interests of black people and poor people are constantly being subverted for political expediency."

The convention voted Tuesday night to divide Georgia's delegation among regular forces and an integrated group of challengers led by State Rep. Julian Bond after refusing to unseat the regulars entirely. It also turned back a Negro-led bid to cast out the regular Alabama delegation.

Bond, who has been supporting McCarthy, said he was sympathetic to the movement but said his delegation was still uncommitted.

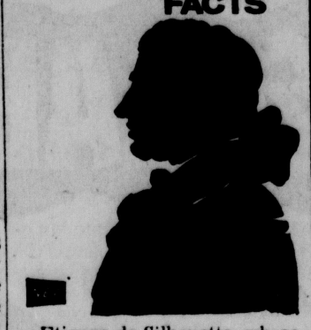
He said, "I don't think the decision is going to be whether they're going Republican or Democratic this fall. It will be whether they're going Democratic or going at all."

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS



Etienne de Silhouette, whose hobby was cutting out paper portraits, was French finance minister in 1759. Trying to increase revenues, Silhouette's policies were so severe that he was forced to resign after nine months. During this time the arts took on an austerity "a la Silhouette" (on the cheap) so that instead of painting portraits artists simply drew outlines in profile.

5 North Carolina Children Make Worms Out Of Plastic

GASTONIA, N.C. (AP) — The five Walker children are in the plastic worm business this summer and their fisherman-father is proud of the struggling — if unprofitable—family business.

Dr. W. W. "Chuck" Walker, an orthodontist and a fisherman, explained:

"So many kids are out on the streets with nothing to do these days. They throw bottles and break glass and get into trouble.

"When my kids are home here making worms, I know they're making money and are not out on the streets getting into trouble."

The Walker Brothers Bait Co. consists of Sam, 7, twins Bob and Jim 10, and Woody, 15, with a healthy assist from sister Karen, 17.

They make a four-inch green plastic worm developed by their father. Dr. Walker claims a loss of $800 so far—but the kids make some spending money.

"I buy bubble gum and go bowling," said 7-year-old Sam, who just works when the spirit moves him.

Fifteen-year-old Woody is the top worm maker. He has earned $75 and hopes to buy a surfboard.

The Walker youngsters began by molding the plastic worms on the kitchen stove. Before long however, Mrs. Walker sent them to the basement with a hot plate.

"It was a little too much to cook beans and plastic worms on the same stove," she said. "The plastic is not very nice smelling and it leaves a film on the windows."

Major Parties Are 'Sweating', Wallace Claims

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — George C. Wallace says his presidential candidacy has both major parties "sweating."

Wallace spoke to about 6,000 at a rally, 300 at the $25-a-plate dinner here, and about 200, including some Indians, on the Navajo reservation at Window Rock.

Four brief scuffles broke out over pro-and anti-Wallace signs at the rally, and a few young people walked out.

"If there are any more of you anarchists here, get out now," Wallace told them, "because it's going to be different after I'm president."

First-Ballot Protest Vote

Black Delegates Pushing 'Favorite Son' Candidate

However, leaders conceded the protest is unlikely to create any major dent in the drive by frontrunner Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey for the party's nomination.

The movement to deny black support to the three leading contenders and cast the Negro votes instead for the Rev. Channing Phillips, a minister from the nation's capital, stemmed from resentment at the refusal of the convention to unseat two Deep South delegations.

HHH Riding Southern, North, Midwest Delegations

The public argument might suggest it is wide open, especially as contrasted with the decorous parley in Miami Beach two weeks ago which handed Richard Nixon the Republican presidential nomination.

But votes taken in the first two days of the Democratic convention, despite all the hot oratory, clearly show Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey consistently in the driver's seat, riding an unusual coalition of bedfellows—conservative delegations from the South along with many of the big, presumably liberal delegations from the industrial North and Midwest.

Humphrey agents have been all over the hall, according to his opponents. In addition to pressure applied directly by the vice president, his opponents insist the Platform Committee's majority recommendation on the Vietnam plank was dictated by the Johnson administration. Their view is that the President left his vice president free to call the shots on the domestic issues but moved in himself, positively, on the foreign affairs planks.

The glue holding Humphrey delegates in line will get its severest prenomination test today when the Vietnam plank goes to the floor for a vote. If Humphrey survives the all-out assault planned by the doves, he should have clear sailing then to his nomination. The "if" here remains a big one because it was on the issue of Vietnam that Eugene McCarthy was consistently underestimated by the experts from New Hampshire to Oregon.

Nonetheless, on the issues that have already reached the floor the vice president has shown steady control.

Two votes—on the question of seating contested delegations from Georgia and Alabama found states such as Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan and Illinois falling into line on the same side as South Carolina, Louisiana, Tennessee and Arkansas.

What they agreed on was ostensibly a matter of civil rights, the one issue that has driven a regional wedge through the Democratic party for a generation.

Even delegations from Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Hawaii and the Panama Canal Zone voted with the Dixie delegates to defeat the challengers.

"When you get delegations like these to vote against the seating of black delegates, you know the convention is being controlled," said John Kenneth Galbraith, who is working for McCarthy. "This one is under the management of Hubert Humphrey and Larry O'Brien."

But in both votes, there was another consideration involved. Both challenging delegations were thick with McCarthy supporters. Seating them would not only have replaced Humphrey votes with McCarthy votes but also might have precipitated defections from the vice president in other states.

Put another way, Humphrey forces in the North scratched the South's back. The South, it is assumed, could be expected to return the favor nomination night.

Casino Owner Dies As Bomb Rips His Car

ZEHYR COVE, Nev. (AP) — A casino owner once involved in stockholder struggles over control of Lake Tahoe gambling houses was killed Tuesday when a bomb exploded in his automobile in front of his house.

The body of Richard L. Chartrand, 42, was behind the wheel of his luxury car, torn to pieces by the blast.

The explosion littered the lawns of Chartrand's expensive home and others set among tall pine trees along the south shore of the Sierra lake. A hole was torn in the street.

No one else was injured.

Sheriff George Byers of Douglas County said the bomb was under the floorboard.

"We have no evidence that this was a gangland-type assassination," said Deputy Dist. Atty. Ted Stokes

Chairman Frank Johnson of the Nevada Gaming Control Board, who lives across the street and heard "the tremendously loud blast," said Chartrand has been involved in corporate disputes in the gaming industry

But Dr. T. C. Harper of Reno, one of Chartrand's partners at Barney's Casino, said the disputes ended two years ago when Chartrand became general manager. In addition, Chartrand was president of the South Tahoe Nugget.

Campbell Soup And One Union Agree On Pact

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—A two-year contract between Campbell Soup Co. and one of two striking unions was ratified Tuesday.

The month-long strike ended for 2,800 members of Local 80-A of Amalgamated Meatcutters and Butchers Workmen, AFL—CIO, when they accepted the contract hammered out in 16 hours of negotiations.

It provides a 28-cent hourly increase over the two years along with increased pension, vacation and health benefits.

Negotiators said a 13-cent-an-hour wage boost, retroactive to March 1, goes into effect immediately. An additional 15 cents will be paid beginning March 1, 1969.

A second union, Delaware Valley Lodge of International Association of machinists, is still striking the Camden plant but a membership meeting has been called for today and it is thought a breakthrough is near.

The Camden plant was one of five Campbell plants across the country struck by various unions. The Camden settlement will have no effect on the other strikes, including one in Napoleon, Ohio.

Greater Care Of Newsmen Promised After Clubbing

CHICAGO (AP) — Protests to Mayor Richard J. Daley and Police Supt. James B. Conlisk have brought promises of greater care in dealing with newsmen reporting demonstrations during the Democratic National Convention.

Twenty-four newsmen reported they were clubbed or sprayed with chemical disabling agent during police clashes with hippies and Vietnam war protesters on the city's North Side Sunday and Monday nights.

Letters and telegrams protesting the police action came from the three major broadcast networks, three of Chicago's major dailies, Life magazine, journalistic associations, labor organizations and two church groups.

Four city aldermen filed a letter calling on the city council for an official censure of Daley and Conlisk. A fifth alderman joined them in calling for an emergency council meeting to consider the issue.

The city attorney must determine that an emergency exists before such a sesssion could be called.

"We ask the men of the news media to follow the instructions of police as other citizens should," the mayor said.

The police said they would remind their men not to interfere with newsmen and their equipment, and of the requirement to wear badges and identification at all times.

The agreement also repeated Conlisk's promise of a full investigation. The superintendent said senior police officers would be on the scene of future demonstrations to assure the rights of newsmen and bystanders.

Most of the newsmen reported they were attacked while police using night sticks and tear gas drove thousands of demonstrators from Lincoln Park after the 11 p.m. closing hour.

Poll Credits Nixon With 6-Point Lead

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon, in a sharp reversal from last month, holds identical six-point leads over Democrats Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and President Johnson in the latest Harris Survey.

The national survey showed Nixon leading Humphrey 40 per cent to 34; McCarthy 41 to 35 and Johnson 42 to 36, Louis Harris said in a copyright Washington Post report Tuesday.

He said the results represent a turnabout of more than 10 points for Nixon since the Republican National Convention and the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia, and a reduction of McCarthy's edge over Humphrey.

A Harris Survey conducted July 24-29 showed Nixon behind Humphrey 41 per cent to 36 and behind McCarthy 43 to 35.

In the latest survey, 1,536 voters were interviewed in a single day, last Saturday, Harris said.

He said the sharp increase in strength of a just-nominated candidate is not uncommon and said Nixon also showed a six-point lead immediately after nomination in 1960 over the late John F. Kennedy.

Third party candidate George C. Wallace, Harris said, had 16 to 17 per cent support in all three Nixon-Democrat tests Saturday, little change from the former Alabama governor's showing in the July survey.

Czechs Write New Chapter In Resisting Force Threats

After Soviet troops invaded Czechoslovakia last week, AP Correspondent Gene Kramer drove from Vienna to Prague and toured the countryside around the Czechoslovakia capital. Now back in Vienna, he reports on the resistance of the people to the Soviet occupation.

By GENE KRAMER
Associated Press Writer

VIENNA (AP) — Often regarded as the more docile and pragmatic of the Slavic peoples the Czechs and the Slovaks wrote a new chapter last week in the chronicle of resistance to threats of force.

Their conduct during a week of occupation and their first reaction to the agreement in Moscow between the Soviet leaders and the men from Prague suggests that some resistance may continue.

On a 300-mile drive through occupied Czechoslovakia I saw anti-Soviet sentiment to a degree that would have been unthinkable a year ago.

Hundreds of Czechs, 15 to 40, have been parading the past week in Wenceslas Square, the center of Prague, hooting and shaking their fists at Soviet tank crews.

During one of the deemonstrations, a retired factory foreman told me proudly: "Look at them, they are our youth. A whole generation that grew up under socialism and was taught to regard the Russians as brothers. But in one week, all is changed. This is something for the whole world to think about."

At Frantiskovy Lasne, near the German border, a cook said: "The resistance we are putting up is not new to us. Our fathers used it against the Germans. And now the Russians have taken the place of the Germans in our hearts."

He pointed to posters showing a swastika and Russian star superimposed and the symbol for the dreaded German SS, Hitler's elite guard, scrawled over the U.S.S.R.

Using classic tricks of the French Resistance against the Nazis, the Czechoslovaks overnight turned their country into a jungle of towns and streets with no names and road signs. From the northwest corner of Czechoslovakia to Ceske Velenice, on the Austrian border, this reporter did not see a single crossroads with highway markers giving correct directions. They were either reversed, blanked out or replaced with "Moscow" in Russia's cyrillic lettering.

Near Karlovy Vary, anyone following the signs to Prague wound up at the German border. Not a map was on sale. Even in the center of Prague Soviet tank drivers huddled over their charts with bewildered looks.

Wherever the Russians move they encounter unmistakable hostility. People turn their backs on the occupation forces; sign in shops warn that they won't be served.

Wreath Dropped In Memory Of Chutists' Deaths

HURON, Ohio (AP)—To commemorate the deaths of 16 parachutists who drowned when they dropped into Lake Erie by mistake a year earlier, three sky divers dropped a wreath into the lake and then jumped in themselves Tuesday afternoon.

The jump was made from an altitude of 3,600 feet about a quarter of a mile off Huron, the same area where the 16 died on Aug. 27, 1967.

Making the jump were Don Harding, 39, of Cleveland; Lou Pemberton, 35, of Medina and Carl Walk, 28, of Cleveland.

The jumpers wore flotation gear which kept them afloat until they were picked up by boats that were waiting for them.

Convention Briefs

CHICAGO (AP) — A Columbia Broadcasting System newsman, trying to interview a Georgia delegate apparently being hauled by guards from the floor of the Democratic National Convention, was knocked down himself in a brief melee.

"We tried to talk to the man, and we got bodily pushed out of the way," Dan Rather reported to a national TV audience.

"This is the kind of thing that's been going on outside the hall. This is the first time we've had it happen inside the hall."

Rather said when he tried to talk to the delegate the security guards "put me on the deck—I didn't do very well."

CHICAGO (AP) — There was violence in Chicago's parks between police and demonstrating young people, and a lot of verbal abuse at the Democratic National Cinvention but the nation's second biggest city didn't lose all its cool.

The white dress with brown and black dots was what she wore when she married television executive Leslie Midgely not long after her appointment by President Johnson as special assistant for consumer affairs.

The vice president's wife, Muriel, was asked at a luncheon whether greetings had gone to LBJ, celebrating his 60th at the Texas White House.

"Oh, gosh, I forgot to remind Hubert of that," she replied. The happy birthday wishes were dispatched within the hour.

CHICAGO (AP) — A long-haired hippie in sandals, slightly tattered clothes and covered with dirt paraded Tuesday in downtown Chicago carrying a McCarthy for President sign that also carried the message, "A breath of fresh air."

—:—

CHICAGO (AP) — There was advice offered today by the oldest delegate to the Democratic National Convention to some of the youngest.

Have fun, said Mrs. Emma Guffey Miller, 94, of Pittsburgh, Pa. Conventions are made for enjoying.

CHICAGO (AP) — The International Amphitheatre is air-conditioned but a lot of the windy talk under the glaring television lights warm things up considerably for delegates and guests.

His son Andreas, his chief aide and political heir apparent, spent eight months in jail after the coup and was allowed to leave Greece in January. He now lives in Stockholm and leads a propaganda campaign against the Greek military government.

Ex-Premier Of Greece Reported Seriously Ill

A reliable source said he was rushed to an air force hospital during the night. Now 80, he has had heart trouble for some time, and aides reported recently his health was failing.

Papandreou has been under house arrest almost continuously since army leaders seized power 15 months ago to prevent his Center Union party from winning a general election. His son Andreas, his chief aide and political heir apparent, spent eight months in jail after the coup and was allowed to leave Greece in January. He now lives in Stockholm and leads a propaganda campaign against the Greek military government.

Car Insurance Rates Hearing Is Canceled

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state has canceled plans to hold a hearing in connection with auto insurance rates filed by Allstate Insurance Co. in 1967.

State Insurance Director Eugene P. Brown said Tuesday it would be pointless to hold a hearing since additional information provided by the company indicates "that Allstate's underwriting profit on its Ohio auto business over the last five years averaged less than 2 per cent while the last three years averaged only slightly more than 2 per cent."

Ohio Man Convicted In Shooting Of Wife

CINCINNATI (AP) — A jury convicted Hershel Colbert of Cincinnati Tuesday of first-degree murder in the March 20 shooting of his estranged wife Delores, but recommended mercy.

Judge John W. Keefe of Hamilton County Common Pleas Court set sentencing for Sept. 5 for the 24-year-old man.

Siddhartha Gautama, an Indian prince born about 160 B.C., founded Buddhism. He experienced a spiritual awakening while meditating under a tree and rose up as the Buddha, or Enlightened One.

How to plan a carefree Labor Day weekend

1. Stock up in advance—on picnic foods, easy-to-fix party foods, lunch box fixin's for the first day of school.
2. Do your shopping at Foodland! You'll save dollars that'll buy a Sunday night movie, a new pair of sneakers for Billy, or . . .?
3. STAY OFF THE HIGHWAY IF YOU CAN. IF YOU CAN'T, STAY ON IT—SAFELY.

Thoughts On This And That

Jumping To Conclusions

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

The two most frustrated occupational groups in America today are housewives and ministers. They share—and probably justly so—a feeling that they perform a useful role the importance of which isn't fully appreciated by the rest of society.

Ever notice that most people who brag they never buy anything except at wholesale usually have a seedy look?

Now is the time to start thinking about which deserving friends you can present those unworn Christmas ties that your Aunt Martha gave you last year.

Life for college presidents was simpler when all that students did to get attention was swallow goldfish, or go on panty raids, or see how many could crowd into a phone booth.

Girls are funny. Call one under 115 pounds a "broad," and she giggles. But if you apply that slangy term to one over 130 pounds, she'll put you on her drop-dead list forever.

Today we have many wonder drugs but few wonder politicians. A wonder politician is one who could carry out his primises to make a better life for us all—and do it without inflicting a new tax or raising an old one.

One way to avoid the divorce courts is for a fellow to be sure to go through his pockets himself the night before his wife sends his suit out to be cleaned.

We have decided it is more restful to remain a cultural illiterate than to become a member of the intelligentsia— if to do so requires one to read the poetry of Allen Ginsberg, defend mod art, and be able to explain what Andy Warhol stands for.

People love to complain about their problems, but are usually more stimulated than destroyed by them. If a man has no troubles to overcome, no dangers to surmount, no barriers to break through, how can he prove he's a hero? It is also better to have a choice of problems to worry about, as one problem can become too boring. That's why a dog with two fleas leads a far more interesting life than a dog with but a single flea or no fleas at all.

If the Democratic convention in Chicago reminds you in a depressing way of the Republican antics you saw recently in Miami Beach, you can blame it on one of television's key faults—too many summer reruns.

Britain's Prince Visits Plants For Extra Education

LONDON (AP) — Britain's Prince Charles has joined the millions of college students who are using summer vacation for extra education.

The royal heir apparent has started a series of visits to industrial plants under a program organized by the Ministry of Technology, to view British efforts to conquer the deficit of foreign payments by upgrading manufacturing facilities of the country.

His first visit, accompanied by his father, the Duke of Edinburgh, was to the plant of Molins Machine Company Ltd., a mile from the Tower of London, where he saw working models and installation progress of the "most modern facility in the world for making precision parts."

The Molins organization, which produces cigarette manufacturing equipment — including the machine which makes the "flip-top box" — has developed a computer - controlled system which produces with seven machines and 48 people the output of 300 conventional machine tools manned by 363 persons.

Own Device Brewed In Fund-Raising Plea

The cost of manufactured coin containers is so high, they say, that the center decided to use empty one - pound coffee cans with plastic lids in a fund drive.

The Jefferson nickel was designed by Felix Schlag of Chicago in the first nationwide artists' competition ever sponsored by the U.S. Mint.

More than 50,000,000 people are injured each year according to the National Health Survey conducted by the U.S. Public Health Service. In a single year there were 10,400,000 disabling injuries . . . 107,000 deaths. Wage losses alone from these accidents totaled over five billion dollars. By HAL HUMPHREY

The Summer Olympics

Vacationing Hal Humphrey's guest columnist today is Roone Arledge, president of ABC Sports, the network which will cover the summer Olympics.

NEW YORK — Whatever the eventual outcome of the controversy surrounding America's Negro athletes, one thing is certain — the Summer Olympics will be held. And U.S. sports fans will see the incomparable athletic spectacle as it occurs.

With so much misunderstanding in the world, it is to the everlasting credit of the Olympic Organizing Committee to have so many varied and clashing ideologies living and competing under a common banner — the joined rings of the Olympic flag. ABC is privileged to be bringing the world this rare view of worldwide unity.

ACTIVITY at ABC-TV is accelerating toward the biggest live remote telecast in TV history. That's a mouthful and it's not publicity puff. Statistics can be overdone but a few figures confirm the statement as fact.

The 44 hours of coverage from Mexico City will surpass the previous Olympic record of 27 hours from Grenoble, France, scene of the 1968 winter games.

Some 250 ABC employes worked a near 'round-the-clock schedule in Grenoble. More than 350 ABC personnel will be under similar pressure in the complex Mexico City operation.

More than 40 ABC cameras will be used for the network's exclusive color coverage of the summer games. In Grenoble, 33 cameras were employed. Additionally, we will be able to draw from the international TV pool, which will hire 79 cameras.

THE WINTER OLYMPICS were represented by seven different sports. The summer Olympics will feature 22 distinct sporting competitions between Oct. 12 and Oct. 27. ABC-TV will present at least one daily live telecast and on some days as many as four. About 75 per cent of the programs will include live events.

This is something we weren't able to offer on a regular basis from Grenoble because of the time differential between the United States and France.

Mexico City, of course, is virtually ideal in this regard. And it also is ideal in another regard. The Mexican Olympic Organizing Committee has done a masterful job in arranging sites and constructing some of the most magnificent sports structures anywhere.

IT IS TRUE that we will be facing monumental editorial and logistical problems. The schedule of events for Sunday, Oct. 20, illustrates just how hectic it will get for the mass media. That day, competition in no fewer than 15 different sports will be conducted.

World records could be established at any point. And ABC — partly because of its vast logistical operation and partly because of the international TV pool coverage — will be able to show any newsworthy performance the day it occurs.

In some cases, ABC will have unilateral coverage: that is, pictures which will be seen exclusively in the United States. This will be the case for track and field, swimming and diving, gymnastics and the opening and closing ceremonies.

At other events, we will be participating in the pool along with Telesistema Mexicano, the Japanese TV network and EUB (European Broadcasting Union).

AND WE HAVE available the new techniques that have helped popularize sports on TV: The split-screen process, slow motion, stop action, instant replay.

Four of the nation's most articulate, experienced and — judging from the mail — popular broadcasters will describe the Summer Olympic excitement for ABC.

Chris Schenkel, Jim McKay, Bill Flemming and Bud Palmer are the nucleus of our formidable staff. But even this able team will need assistance, and they'll get it from a host of experts, many of them former Olympic champions, and other sports analysts.

We hope the present difficulties are ironed out to the satisfaction of all concerned and that the American squad sent to this fabulous event is the finest ever to represent our country.

THE FACT that the 1968 Summer Olympics are the first on the North American continent since Los Angeles hosted the pre-TV 1932 games is particularly significant to us.

The athletes have waited four years for the Olympics to arrive, some even a lifetime. We've been planning for almost three years. I know ABC is ready, willing and able. And we hope the same will be true of the world's athletes.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Eye Appeal Plus

DEAR HELOISE: I frequently give my children applesauce, gelatin, cottage cheese or canned fruit with their meals.

Heloise

As these foods nearly always "run", I put it in individual paper cupcake liners and place one on each child's plate.

Sure saves a messy plate as well as extra dishes.

A cute idea, Lillian. It also perks up the child's interest by adding eye appeal to the plate, which is so important when serving little folks.

If you've a dishwasher and don't mind the extra dishes, those little pyrex custard cups are equally good for this. Makes whatever's inside sorta special, doesn't it? And no one is fussing about their food running together either!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE:

Through the years I've helped many charities. As I support myself and two children who are now in college, I have no money for these charities.

Instead, I send them old nylons, used postage stamps, used Christmas cards, leftover new material and yarn from my sewing and knitting projects and my miscellaneous trading stamps of small quantities where I'd never collect enough for my own use.

What I send may seem meaningless, but when it's added to other donations, someone in need can make good use of it.

My cash outlay on these things is the cost of postage, which is minor.

VIRGINIA PHILLIPS.

DEAR HELOISE: I've just now discovered something . . .

Contesting is one of my hobbies. So many cold drink contests ask you to send the cork liners out of their bottle caps.

I was trying to get the liners out and tearing them all up until I hit on the idea of putting my iron on top of the bottle lids and letting it sit awhile.

That loosens the glue and makes them much easier to remove. Just hold the cap with a cloth so you won't burn your hands.

MRS. H. H. VINSON.

The hot iron will loosen the glue, but it does take awhile.

If you grab the bottle cap with your kitchen tongs and hold a cigarette lighter under it for ten or fifteen seconds, the cork lining will come out all in one piece.

Just don't burn your "pinkies" and I hope you win.

HELOISE.

Cut the brownie squares in half, place slices of ice cream in between and freeze. Absolutely mouth-watering!

LAURA BRAND.

DEAR HELOISE: Through just plain carelessness, I sprayed my wig (on its foam head block) with wig cleaner, making a bad stain on the foam.

I now have slipped a plastic bag over the block and tied it tightly around the neck with a stout string.

TWO HEADS.

DEAR HELOISE: When washing dishes or working at the stove on food that requires constant stirring, I do these chores with my knees resting on a padded kitchen chair.

Not only saves tired tootsies but I find this very relaxing and still get the job done!

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I mend sheer or nylon curtains?

Q.—How can I whip cream well ahead of serving time, so that it will continue to stand in peaks?

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Eye Appeal Plus

DEAR HELOISE: I frequently give my children applesauce, gelatin, cottage cheese or canned fruit with their meals.

As these foods nearly always "run", I put it in individual paper cupcake liners and place one on each child's plate.

Heloise

A cute idea, Lillian. It also perks up the child's interest by adding eye appeal to the plate, which is so important when serving little folks.

If you've a dishwasher and don't mind the extra dishes, those little pyrex custard cups are equally good for this. Makes whatever's inside sorta special, doesn't it? And no one is fussing about their food running together either!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE:

Through the years I've helped many charities. As I support myself and two children who are now in college, I have no money for these charities.

Instead, I send them old nylons, used postage stamps, used Christmas cards, leftover new material and yarn from my sewing and knitting projects and my miscellaneous trading stamps of small quantities where I'd never collect enough for my own use.

What I send may seem meaningless, but when it's added to other donations, someone in need can make good use of it.

My cash outlay on these things is the cost of postage, which is minor.

VIRGINIA PHILLIPS.

DEAR HELOISE: I've just now discovered something . . .

Contesting is one of my hobbies. So many cold drink contests ask you to send the cork liners out of their bottle caps.

I was trying to get the liners out and tearing them all up until I hit on the idea of putting my iron on top of the bottle lids and letting it sit awhile.

That loosens the glue and makes them much easier to remove. Just hold the cap with a cloth so you won't burn your hands.

MRS. H. H. VINSON.

The hot iron will loosen the glue, but it does take awhile.

If you grab the bottle cap with your kitchen tongs and hold a cigarette lighter under it for ten or fifteen seconds, the cork lining will come out all in one piece.

Just don't burn your "pinkies" and I hope you win.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Make ice cream sandwiches with your favorite cake-type brownie recipe.

Cut the brownie squares in half, place slices of ice cream in between and freeze. Absolutely mouth-watering!

LAURA BRAND.

DEAR HELOISE: Through just plain carelessness, I sprayed my wig (on its foam head block) with wig cleaner, making a bad stain on the foam.

I now have slipped a plastic bag over the block and tied it tightly around the neck with a stout string.

TWO HEADS.

DEAR HELOISE: When washing dishes or working at the stove on food that requires constant stirring, I do these chores with my knees resting on a padded kitchen chair.

Not only saves tired tootsies but I find this very relaxing and still get the job done!

MARY COHEN.

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I mend sheer or nylon curtains?

A.—Apply a bit of colorless nail polish, and press the torn edges together with your fingers. Makes a practically invisible repair job.

A.—By sewing a strip of one-inch gauze bandage on the wrong side of the material along the seam.

Q.—How can I whip cream well ahead of serving time, so that it will continue to stand in peaks?

A.—By using corn syrup instead of sugar as a sweetener.

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Pre-Teens Have Many Interests

Having already discussed the steps involved in letting your child stand alone up to his entrance into first grade, let's take a look at your child of 8 to 11.

Dr. Brandstadt

The pre-teen no longer needs to have his mother hover over him directing his every move—and he often takes drastic steps to make this clear. Despite the fact that he sometimes appears not to care about his parents' feelings, it is very important for him to know that you are there and that you still care about him.

—:—

YOUR PRE-TEEN needs room to expand his interests and his activities. If you want to get the most enjoyment from your relationship, now is the time to watch and encourage him without feeling that you must become actively involved. Let him make his own decisions regarding his friends and his hobbies. If he makes a few mistakes, he will learn more from them than he could possibly learn from your well-meant advice.

THIS DOES NOT mean that the sky's the limit. You must still know where he is, when he will be home and who he is with. If he knows that you have confidence in his ability to correct his mistakes by himself he will be more likely to accept your guidance on matters that really count. Learn to talk with your child, not at him. He has probably heard all your ideas on proper conduct many times. Endless repetition will not help at this stage.

IF HE REFUSES to tidy up his room, you should make it a firm rule that he can't mess up the rest of the house and that he is not to create any fire hazards in his private pigsty. Finally, don't make mountains out of molehills. Don't back down where a moral issue is involved. Don't refuse to help him if he asks you to and never let him think for a moment that you don't love him.

—:—

A—This is a developmental abnormality in which the lower poles of the right and left kidney, which are fused in the embryo, remain fused after birth and throughout life. In practically all persons with horseshoe kidney, the kidney function is normal and as long as the organ works properly, the condition is no more serious than a dimple on the chin.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Personalities In The News

Bowen, 30-year-old record executive, and Miss Smith, 40, were married July 19, 1965, in Las Vegas, Nev. They separated two months ago.

FREDERICK, Md. (AP) — John and Shirley Dayley were stopped by state police and detained for one day in this central Maryland town while en route to Washington, D.C., on their honeymoon.

The Thornville, Ohio, couple were pulled over by police and a representative of the Frederick Jaycees Tuesday not for any offense but just to get acquainted.

Their sentence for receiving the Jaycee's annual welcome mat was honorary citizenship to the historic town, a night's lodging at a local inn, keys to the city, a tour and numerous gifts at a reception that left Mrs. Dayley "surprised and still a little shakey."

SKOWHEGAN, Maine (AP) — Sheriff's deputies say two young boys have admitted entering the home of Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, which was vandalized over the weekend.

Two divans in the living room were slashed with knives, books were strewn on the floor and a portable television set was tipped off its table, authorities said. A silver cigarette holder was missing.

Officials said the boys were aged 10 and 13. A deputy said the older youth would probably face juvenile court hearings.

Mrs. Smith is in New York, recuperating from an operation.

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Mrs. Mary Canning admitted she took candy, toothpaste, a pen and other items when brought before Justice of the Peace James McInturff on a charge of shoplifting.

Mrs. Canning said she was working on a master's degree in sociology and psychology at Gonzaga University and took the stuff on purpose. She told the judge the only way she could understand about hostility of some youths toward the law was to have a brush with it herself.

McInturff dismissed the case after reprimanding Mrs. Canning for "playing games with the law."

Youth Free On Bond In Narcotics Arrest

He was Kenneth Bradford, 18, charged with possession of marijuana following the raid by federal narcotics agents and the Cincinnati vice control bureau.

The two others are being held by local authorities.

Firms' Shareholders Approve Acquisition

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Acquisition of Aeroquip Corp. of Jackson, Mich., by Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Co. was approved Tuesday by shareholders of both firms.

At the same time, L-O-F shareholders approved amendments to the company's articles of incorporation to change the corporate name to Libbey-Owens-Ford Co., and to provide a new class of preferred stock.

Application Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission announced Tuesday approval of an application to assign the license of WPKO, Waverly, Ohio, by Ohio Quests, Inc., to Alfred Dienert and Walter F. Bennett for $21,000.

Car And Van Damaged In Harvey Ave. Crash

Two vehicles were damaged in a collision on Harvey Ave. Tuesday at 1:40 p.m., police reported.

The mishap involved a 1964 van-type truck driven by Robert Hickman, 34, of 2200 Harvey Ave. and a 1966 model auto driven by Leroy Longwell, 63, of 1328 Oakwood Ave. It damaged a bumper and the left side of the van and the right side of the car.

Hickman told police he was turning left into a service station when the van was hit on the side by the auto, which was passing a car to the rear. Longwell told officers he was passing a car when "all of a sudden the other car turned left in front of him" and he could not avoid a collision.

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of John E. Smith, who passed away 16 years ago, August 28, 1952.
Our kind and loving husband and father, We think of you today,
And recall the happy hours, Ere the day you passed away, Never shall your memory fade, And altho we miss you so, We are waiting till we, also, Leave this world of strife and woe. What would I give to clasp his hand, His happy face to see, To hear his voice and see his smile, That meant so much to me. Gone dear husband and father, gone forever; How we miss your smiling face, But you left us to remember, None on earth can take your place. A happy home we once enjoyed, How sweet the memory still, But death has left a loneliness, The world can never fill. The rolling stream of life rolls on, But still the vacant chair, Recalls the love, the voice, the smile, Of the one who once sat there.
Sadly missed by wife and children

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Pre-Teens Have Many Interests

Having already discussed the steps involved in letting your child stand alone up to his entrance into first grade, let's take a look at your child of 8 to 11.

Dr. Brandstadt

The pre-teen no longer needs to have his mother hover over him directing his every move—and he often takes drastic steps to make this clear. Despite the fact that he sometimes appears not to care about his parents' feelings, it is very important for him to know that you are there and that you still care about him.

—:—

YOUR PRE-TEEN needs room to expand his interests and his activities. If you want to get the most enjoyment from your relationship, now is the time to watch and encourage him without feeling that you must become actively involved. Let him make his own decisions regarding his friends and his hobbies. If he makes a few mistakes, he will learn more from them than he could possibly learn from your well-meant advice.

THIS DOES NOT mean that the sky's the limit. You must still know where he is, when he will be home and who he is with. If he knows that you have confidence in his ability to correct his mistakes by himself he will be more likely to accept your guidance on matters that really count. Learn to talk with your child, not at him. He has probably heard all your ideas on proper conduct many times. Endless repetition will not help at this stage.

IF HE REFUSES to tidy up his room, you should make it a firm rule that he can't mess up the rest of the house and that he is not to create any fire hazards in his private pigsty. Finally, don't make mountains out of molehills. Don't back down where a moral issue is involved. Don't refuse to help him if he asks you to and never let him think for a moment that you don't love him.

—:—

A—This is a developmental abnormality in which the lower poles of the right and left kidney, which are fused in the embryo, remain fused after birth and throughout life. In practically all persons with horseshoe kidney, the kidney function is normal and as long as the organ works properly, the condition is no more serious than a dimple on the chin.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Personalities In The News

Bowen, 30-year-old record executive, and Miss Smith, 40, were married July 19, 1965, in Las Vegas, Nev. They separated two months ago.

Bowen has been married once before, the singer twice. Miss Smith won fame as the deadpan partner of Louis Prima.

FREDERICK, Md. (AP) — John and Shirley Dayley were stopped by state police and detained for one day in this central Maryland town while en route to Washington, D.C., on their honeymoon.

The Thornville, Ohio, couple were pulled over by police and a representative of the Frederick Jaycees Tuesday not for any offense but just to get acquainted.

Their sentence for receiving the Jaycee's annual welcome mat was honorary citizenship to the historic town, a night's lodging at a local inn, keys to the city, a tour and numerous gifts at a reception that left Mrs. Dayley "surprised and still a little shakey."

The Dayleys, wed Saturday, were free today to continue their honeymoon.

SKOWHEGAN, Maine (AP) — Sheriff's deputies say two young boys have admitted entering the home of Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, which was vandalized over the weekend.

Two divans in the living room were slashed with knives, books were strewn on the floor and a portable television set was tipped off its table, authorities said. A silver cigarette holder was missing.

Officials said the boys were aged 10 and 13. A deputy said the older youth would probably face juvenile court hearings.

Mrs. Smith is in New York, recuperating from an operation.

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Mrs. Mary Canning admitted she took candy, toothpaste, a pen and other items when brought before Justice of the Peace James McInturff on a charge of shoplifting.

Mrs. Canning said she was working on a master's degree in sociology and psychology at Gonzaga University and took the stuff on purpose. She told the judge the only way she could understand about hostility of some youths toward the law was to have a brush with it herself.

McInturff dismissed the case after reprimanding Mrs. Canning for "playing games with the law."

Youth Free On Bond In Narcotics Arrest

He was Kenneth Bradford, 18, charged with possession of marijuana following the raid by federal narcotics agents and the Cincinnati vice control bureau.

The two others are being held by local authorities.

Firms' Shareholders Approve Acquisition

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Acquisition of Aeroquip Corp. of Jackson, Mich., by Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Co. was approved Tuesday by shareholders of both firms.

At the same time, L-O-F shareholders approved amendments to the company's articles of incorporation to change the corporate name to Libbey-Owens-Ford Co., and to provide a new class of preferred stock.

Application Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission announced Tuesday approval of an application to assign the license of WPKO, Waverly, Ohio, by Ohio Quests, Inc., to Alfred Dienert and Walter F. Bennett for $21,000.

Car And Van Damaged In Harvey Ave. Crash

Two vehicles were damaged in a collision on Harvey Ave. Tuesday at 1:40 p.m., police reported.

The mishap involved a 1964 van-type truck driven by Robert Hickman, 34, of 2200 Harvey Ave. and a 1966 model auto driven by Leroy Longwell, 63, of 1328 Oakwood Ave. It damaged a bumper and the left side of the van and the right side of the car.

Hickman told police he was turning left into a service station when the van was hit on the side by the auto, which was passing a car to the rear. Longwell told officers he was passing a car when "all of a sudden the other car turned left in front of him" and he could not avoid a collision.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of John E. Smith, who passed away 16 years ago, August 28, 1952.
Our kind and loving husband and father, We think of you today, And recall the happy hours, Ere the day you passed away. Never shall your memory fade, And altho we miss you so, We are waiting till we, also, Leave this world of strife and woe. What would I give to clasp his hand, His happy face to see, To hear his voice and see his smile, That meant so much to me. Gone dear husband and father, gone forever; How we miss your smiling face, But you left us to remember, None on earth can take your place. A happy home we once enjoyed, How sweet the memory still, But death has left a loneliness, The world can never fill. The rolling stream of life rolls on, But still the vacant chair, Recalls the love, the voice, the smile, Of the one who once sat there.
Sadly missed by wife and children

3 CARD OF THANKS

SINCERE kindness and sympathy bring consolation in a time of sorrow. The many helpful acts and understanding words of relatives, friends and neighbors after the sudden loss of my dear husband, James Carl Wilson: The services of Doctor J. W. Schoolnic, Lynn's Ambulance Service, the nurses and the emergency room of City Hospital; especially Martin Funeral Home, the pallbearers, and Rev. H. Dean McElroy are all blended into a beautiful and heart warming memory that I will always cherish.—Mrs. Lydia Wilson.

THE family of Thomas Bowen Sr. wishes to thank those who showed so much kindness and thoughtfulness to us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father. We are especially grateful to the 3rd floor nurses of City Hospital, Dr. Brand, Mrs. Virginia Stanley, our neighbors, and Rev. Daniel Davis.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

On this date in 1609 the English navigator, Henry Hudson discovered Delaware Bay.

In 1749, the German poet and philosopher, Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, was born.

In 1828, the Russian novelist, Count Leo Tolsoy, was born.

In 1833, the British Parliament banned slavery.

In 1913, the Palace of Peace was dedicated at the Hague, Netherlands. It was a gift of the American industrialist, Andrew Carnegie.

In 1916, Germany declared war on Romania.

Five years ago: Some 200,000 Negroes and whites staged a peaceful demonstration in Washington. The rally for full civil rights was the greatest assembly for a redress of grievances ever held in the capital.

Junior Editors Quiz on INDIANS

QUESTION: Why didn't American Indians have mustaches and beards?

* * * *

ANSWER: American Indians, belonging to the Mongoloid racial group, have less hair on their faces than the heavily-bearded white men. It's not true, however, that they have no hair at all on their upper lips and chins. The fashion of most Indian tribes was for bare faces, which showed their sharp, rugged features and gave them a more warlike look. It also made it easier to apply war paint, something very important to an Indian. Most Indians carefully plucked out the coarse hair on their faces, one hair at a time, often using sharp shells as tweezers. But not all Indian tribes plucked their faces bare. We show men from two tribes which were among the exceptions to the fashion. A young man from the Yaqui of Mexico has pushed aside his ceremonial mask, showing a handsome mustache. Below, right, is a chief of the Tlingit tribe living in the Pacific Northwest. His mustache is grayed with age. Elders of this tribe, and young men as well, often wore beards.

THE BORN LOSER

ANN LANDERS

Wear 'Em And Be Proud:

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I disagree with your reply to Galatea, the girl who wondered about a gentleman who wore his Phi Beta Kappa key as a lapel piece.

I'm one of many who has earned a Phi Beta Kappa key but I don't dare wear it because of all the smart-aleck remarks.

Why is it that if one has earned membership in this elite society he is considered an egomaniac if he wears his key? Is there any other society whose members have to keep their identity hidden like that?

If a soldier earns a ribbon or a medal he wears it with pride and people respect him for it. But the person who wears a Phi Beta Kappa key is accused of showing off. Why? Why? Why? — KEYED UP.

Dear Up: That column produced a blizzard of letters. I didn't realize I had so many Phi Beta Kappas in my reading audiences. Most of the people who wrote said they'd like to wear their keys but they can't take the ribbing.

I hereby encourage all members of Phi Beta Kappa to take out your keys and wear them. If any wizenheimer pops off, tell him you'll take your key off if he'll put his on.

Dear Ann: I have a friend who is fat as a cow. She says that more than anything in the world she loves to eat and she will not give up this pleasure.

She also would like to have a nice figure, which is very hard to do, considering that she constantly is stuffing herself with candy, cake, cookies, caramel corn and everything fattening you can think of.

Last week my friend told me she has hit on a system that will allow her to eat whatever she pleases and not put on weight. She packs in the rich food and then she goes to the bathroom and forces herself to throw up. She claims if the food is not in her it will not make her gain weight.

Is this true or false? — THE ASKER.

Dear Asker: It is false, foolish and dangerous. When your friend throws up the food she also loses the gastric juices which are essential to good health. The girl sounds cuckoo to me and I hope she'll see a doctor and get on a sensible diet before she wrecks her health.

Dear Ann: I'm a widow in my late 40s. A few weeks ago my father-in-law died. He was not a wealthy man but he left me 50 per cent of his estate. The balance was divided between his two daughters.

I received a call from one of his daughters, saying I should be a lady and sign over my share of the estate to her and her sister because the will was written while my husband was alive and now that he is dead I'm not entitled to anything because I'm not legally related.

She promised me a court fight if I refuse and added, "You would surely lose, my dear, and the publicity would be dreadful."

My father-in-law was a dear man and I enjoyed having him in my home. He did not have a good relationship with his daughters or their husbands and spent very little time with them.

I'm not hard up for money but I don't want to be intimidated. Please tell me what to do. — SHADES OF BLUE.

Dear Shades: See a lawyer and learn what your rights are. Don't discuss this with anyone and don't sign anything without legal counsel.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Union's Lack Of Aid 'Agitates' Spokesman

How'd He Like It?

NEW YORK (AP) — One day when Hubert Humphrey was in town, he was in the Time-Life Building. On leaving, he rode the elevator with Mary Kay Moran, assistant to Nicholas Benton, promotion manager of Time-Life books. She introduced herself, shook the vice president's hand and presented him with a book. The title: "The Election Watcher's Companion."

Living Costs Jumped .5% During July

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose one half of one per cent in July, matching the June jump and recording the sharpest two-month increase in 11 years, the Labor Department reported Tuesday.

A steep climb in home mortgage interest rates and medical care charges accounted for much of the rise. Food prices also rose, but less than usual for July.

The July consumer price index at 121.5 was 4.3 per cent higher than a year ago. The index means that it now costs $12.15 to buy the package of typical family needs which cost $10 in the base period, 1957 to 1959.

Department officials said indications are, however, that living costs could taper off in August and that the rise will slow down over the remaining months of this year.

The wholesale price index increased four-tenths of one per cent in July to 109.1 which was 2.4 per cent higher than it was last year. Most of the wholesale price increase resulted from higher prices for farm products and foods.

Preliminary indications are for a drop in August wholesale prices with declines in farm products and a moderate reduction for processed foods and feeds leading the way, the department said.

Probe On Probe?

CAPETOWN (AP) — Government inquiry commissions take so long to produce reports that opposition United Party member Samuel Emdin suggested to parliament an inquiry commission to probe the slowness of inquiry commissions.

Victoria Falls, in central Africa, has a chasm only about half as wide as that of Niagara Flls, but it is more than twice as deep, varying from 256 feet at the right bank to 343 feet in the center.

Records Reveal Kids Like School

Elizabeth Castle, 15, had perfect attendance records in seventh, eighth and ninth grades. Her brother, Cecil Jr., 10, had perfect attendance marks for the second, third and fourth grades. Another sister, Mary Lou, 9, had no absences in the second and third grades.

ANN LANDERS

Wear 'Em And Be Proud:

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I disagree with your reply to Galatea, the girl who wondered about a gentleman who wore his Phi Beta Kappa key as a lapel piece.

I'm one of many who has earned a Phi Beta Kappa key but I don't dare wear it because of all the smart-aleck remarks.

Why is it that if one has earned membership in this elite society he is considered an egomaniac if he wears his key? Is there any other society whose members have to keep their identity hidden like that?

If a soldier earns a ribbon or a medal he wears it with pride and people respect him for it. But the person who wears a Phi Beta Kappa key is accused of showing off. Why? Why? Why? — KEYED UP.

Dear Up: That column produced a blizzard of letters. I didn't realize I had so many Phi Beta Kappas in my reading audiences. Most of the people who wrote said they'd like to wear their keys but they can't take the ribbing.

I hereby encourage all members of Phi Beta Kappa to take out your keys and wear them. If any wizenheimer pops off, tell him you'll take your key off if he'll put his on.

Dear Ann: I have a friend who is fat as a cow. She says that more than anything in the world she loves to eat and she will not give up this pleasure.

She also would like to have a nice figure, which is very hard to do, considering that she constantly is stuffing herself with candy, cake, cookies, caramel corn and everything fattening you can think of.

Last week my friend told me she has hit on a system that will allow her to eat whatever she pleases and not put on weight. She packs in the rich food and then she goes to the bathroom and forces herself to throw up. She claims if the food is not in her it will not make her gain weight.

Is this true or false? — THE ASKER.

Dear Asker: It is false, foolish and dangerous. When your friend throws up the food she also loses the gastric juices which are essential to good health. The girl sounds cuckoo to me and I hope she'll see a doctor and get on a sensible diet before she wrecks her health.

Dear Ann: I'm a widow in my late 40s. A few weeks ago my father-in-law died. He was not a wealthy man but he left me 50 per cent of his estate. The balance was divided between his two daughters.

I received a call from one of his daughters, saying I should be a lady and sign over my share of the estate to her and her sister because the will was written while my husband was alive and now that he is dead I'm not entitled to anything because I'm not legally related.

She promised me a court fight if I refuse and added, "You would surely lose, my dear, and the publicity would be dreadful."

My father-in-law was a dear man and I enjoyed having him in my home. He did not have a good relationship with his daughters or their husbands and spent very little time with them.

I'm not hard up for money but I don't want to be intimidated. Please tell me what to do. — SHADES OF BLUE.

Dear Shades: See a lawyer and learn what your rights are. Don't discuss this with anyone and don't sign anything without legal counsel.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Union's Lack Of Aid 'Agitates' Spokesman

NEW DELHI (AP) — The 10,000-member union of Delhi's electric supply department has no funds to help the widow of an electrician killed by a leaking overhead line.

"We spend all our money on agitations," a union spokesman said.

How'd He Like It?

NEW YORK (AP) — One day when Hubert Humphrey was in town, he was in the Time-Life Building. On leaving, he rode the elevator with Mary Kay Moran, assistant to Nicholas Benton, promotion manager of Time-Life books. She introduced herself, shook the vice president's hand and presented him with a book. The title: "The Election Watcher's Companion."

Living Costs Jumped .5% During July

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose one half of one per cent in July, matching the June jump and recording the sharpest two-month increase in 11 years, the Labor Department reported Tuesday.

A steep climb in home mortgage interest rates and medical care charges accounted for much of the rise. Food prices also rose, but less than usual for July.

The July consumer price index at 121.5 was 4.3 per cent higher than a year ago. The index means that it now costs $12.15 to buy the package of typical family needs which cost $10 in the base period, 1957 to 1959.

Department officials said indications are, however, that living costs could taper off in August and that the rise will slow down over the remaining months of this year.

The wholesale price index increased four-tenths of one per cent in July to 109.1 which was 2.4 per cent higher than it was last year. Most of the wholesale price increase resulted from higher prices for farm products and foods.

Preliminary indications are for a drop in August wholesale prices with declines in farm products and a moderate reduction for processed foods and feeds leading the way, the department said.

Probe On Probe?

CAPETOWN (AP) — Government inquiry commissions take so long to produce reports that opposition United Party member Samuel Emdin suggested to parliament an inquiry commission to probe the slowness of inquiry commissions.

Victoria Falls, in central Africa, has a chasm only about half as wide as that of Niagara Flls, but it is more than twice as deep, varying from 256 feet at the right bank to 343 feet in the center.
